

I want to personally invite you to join us for the FGCI National Conference, July 20-23, as we gather around the theme "Fire for the Harvest."

This conference is not just for FGCI churches and ministers—it is for anyone who is hungry for God, passionate about the Kingdom, and desires to be equipped for the work of the harvest. Whether you are a pastor, minister, church leader, volunteer, student, or church member, there is a place for you.

We believe God is calling His Church to three important priorities:

RENEW— A fresh stirring of the gifts and calling of God.

REVIVE — A renewed passion for His presence and power.

REACH — A greater burden to impact our communities and our world with the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Throughout the conference, you will experience powerful worship, anointed preaching, dynamic breakout sessions, leadership training, fellowship, encouragement, and practical ministry resources. Every service and every session is designed to strengthen, equip, and inspire believers for the days ahead. I encourage you to make plans now to be in the room. There is something powerful about gathering together in unity, expectation, and faith. I believe God has prepared moments that will challenge us, change us, and propel us forward into the harvest field.

Don't miss these four incredible days of refreshing, renewal, and spiritual empowerment.

Come expecting. Come hungry. Come ready for God to rekindle the fire within your heart.

The harvest is ready. The Church must be ready.

Pastor Travis Watkins, General Superintendent Full Gospel Church International
