Faith in a Synthetic Future: Why the Church is Exactly What the World Needs

Whenever we look toward a future dominated by artificial intelligence, digital screens, and deepfakes, it's easy to feel a little anxious. As a Lutheran community, we might wonder how our ancient traditions, physical sacraments, and face-to-face fellowships fit into a rapidly shifting, "synthetic" world.

But if we look at the history of the Church, we see a beautiful pattern: whenever the cultural ecosystem changes, the Church adapts. When the Roman Empire collapsed, monastic communities preserved literacy and community. When the printing press was invented, Lutherans were on the cutting edge of the new technology, using it to put grace into the everyday language of ordinary people.

Today, the environment is shifting again. But here is the good news: our congregation is sitting on the exact antidote the culture is looking for. In a world where everything can be faked, automated, and simulated, un-synthesized human presence becomes a priceless gift. AI can spit out fast answers, but it cannot sit with someone in the messy, gray paradoxes of life. The metaverse can offer digital connections, but it cannot offer the physical warmth of shared bread, wine, water, and neighborly love.

As we step into tomorrow, our pivot isn't about beating Silicon Valley at its own game. It's about doubling down on our deeply Lutheran, incarnational DNA. We are called to be a living sanctuary of:

Radical Presence: Prioritizing tactile, real-world connections over superficial performance.

Safe Space: Welcoming doubt, nuance, and questions over algorithmic certainty. Perhaps a good slogan could be, "We don't have all the answers, but we will love you through the questions!"

Sacred Value: Reminding our neighbors that their worth is rooted in being a beloved child of God, not in their economic productivity or digital branding.

As the prophet Isaiah reminds us, "I am about to do a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert" (Isaiah 43:19).

The future doesn't belong to the forces of anxiety; it belongs to the God of resurrection. Let's open our eyes to the rivers starting to flow right here in our neighborhood, and step into tomorrow together with hope.

A New Confirmation Experience

Introducing: Faith Formation for the 21st Century!

Raising grounded, faithful kids in today's fast-paced world can feel like a daunting task. That's why we are thrilled to share our renewed vision for Faith Formation—a holistic, lifelong approach to discipleship designed for real 21st-century lives.

Our curriculum isn't just about Sunday mornings; it's built on four core Lutheran truths that anchor us: Grace Alone (relieving the pressure of perfectionism), Word & Sacrament, acknowledging we are uniquely Saint & Sinner, and putting our Faith Active in Love out in our neighborhoods.

The 3-Tier Delivery Approach: Meeting Families Where They Are

We know life is busy, so we are delivering this ministry through three distinct spaces:

The Community (In the Classroom): High-relational, face-to-face learning on Sundays with small-group discussion tables and trusted adult mentors.

The Bridge (Online Component): Missed a Sunday due to sports or travel? A dedicated online hub will host a quick 5-minute video recap and reflection prompt to keep your student connected.

The Hearth (Parent Resources): We will partner with parents without overwhelming you. Look forward to The Weekly Text (one Bible verse and one dinner table conversation starter) and the simple Faith 5 daily home ritual.

A Lifelong Journey: The Scope & Sequence

Foundations of Faith (Ages 3–10): Children will explore “The Narrative Arc”—the grand, chronological stories of the Bible, the life of Jesus, and the rhythms of the church year through storytelling and music.

Covenant & Catechism (Ages 11–14): Our middle schoolers will dive into scripture and Luther’s Small Catechism, moving from “hearing stories” to asking what they mean for real life. We are excited to collaborate again with Advent and Lutheran Church of the Cross for this pastor-led tier! Stay tuned for more details on the 2026-2027 schedule and new tweaks to the program.

Living Vocation (Ages 15–18): High schoolers will gather in discussion-based cohorts to apply faith to daily pressures—stress, ethics, mental health, and future choices.

Youth in Action: Post-Confirmation Leadership

Confirmation isn’t graduation! Our high school youth will step into active leadership as Peer Mentors for middle school confirmation tables, lead local service cohorts, and take on vital liturgical roles on Sunday mornings as assisting ministers, musicians, and tech crew members.

How You Can Partner With Us

A vision this rich takes a whole village. We are looking for adult mentors, storytellers, tech-savvy helpers, and prayer partners. Whether you are a parent, a grandparent, or a supportive member of the congregation, there is a place for you to help shape the next generation of disciples.

Keep an eye out for upcoming information sessions and launch dates this Fall!

MESSAGE FROM MANAGER OF PARISH OPERATIONS

Growing Together in Community and Purpose

June has been a month of connection, collaboration, and steady progress across Hope's ministries. As we move through the summer, our team continues to strengthen both our internal systems and our shared life together.

We ended June with our first Hope Happy Workplace Hub lunch gathering, where staff shared cultural dishes, stories, and celebrated Zena and Megan's birthdays. This joyful time together reminded us that nurturing a healthy workplace culture is part of nurturing a healthy church. We look forward to our next potluck in July.

Our office team has begun planning the September 2026–June 2027 ministry year, laying early foundations for a smooth and coordinated fall season. In July, we also launch Pastor Greg's weekly Listening Lounge pastoral care sessions, offering a dedicated space for spiritual support and compassionate listening.

June brought meaningful community moments as well. The Ladies Night Line Dancing event welcomed 19 participants for an evening of fun and connection — many thanks to Zena and her family for organizing. Our Children and Youth Ministry continue to grow, with a proposed new name — Faith Formation Ministry — and recruitment for the Children & Youth Coordinator beginning in August.

Hope is also expanding its partnerships. Through the Calgary Lutheran Youth Ministry initiative, we are collaborating with other Lutheran churches to co-organize monthly youth activities. Our Chinese Ministry continues steadily, and we are exploring future collaboration with Hosanna Chinese Lutheran Church following a positive first meeting in June.

Operationally, June marked the full handover of facility rental responsibilities, supported by the revised Hope Facility Use and Rental Policy and updated rental documents, strengthening our stewardship of Hope's physical building through organized rentals and facility use.

In June, the Strategic Planning Retreat affirmed a multicultural ministry focus for the next 3–5 years, supported by the preretreat survey analysis submitted to council on June 18. Our team also joined the 2026 Synod Area Gathering, where we received helpful learning and inspiration from our wider Lutheran community.

Finally, we celebrate a small but meaningful improvement to our shared space: the arrival of the new kitchen fridge on June 16. Thank you to Mark for coordinating this upgrade.

As we continue through the summer, I am grateful for the dedication of our staff, volunteers, and ministry partners. Each step we take — in planning, organizing, and building relationships — strengthens Hope's mission to be a place of welcome, care, and purpose for all who enter.

With gratitude,

Deborah Leung

Manager of Parish Operations

MESSAGE FROM CHURCH COUNCIL

A Message from Your Council Chair

Dear siblings in Christ,

As the calendar turns and the days stretch out, we find ourselves entering a beautiful, distinct season. Summer invites us to step out of our "regular season" routines and step into a holy rhythm of reflection, connection, and renewal. Looking back, it is incredible to think about where we have been and where we are going. A lot has happened since last summer, when we officially called Pastor Greg as our permanent pastor! This past year has been a beautiful whirlwind of growth and transition. Thank you for your incredible contributions, your deep discernment, your trust, and your patience. We are a stronger, more vibrant church family because of each of you.

Embracing God's Summer Rhythms

For many of us, summer means connection outside of our usual schedules. Whether you are heading off to Family Camp at Kuriakos, welcoming visiting family, traveling across the country, or simply escaping to the peace of lakes and forests, I pray you find God in those spaces. This is a time for renewal. A time for intentional rest, slowing down, and allowing ourselves to be part of the natural, restorative rhythms of God's creation.

How Council is Reflecting, Connecting, and Renewing

Your Church Council is embracing these exact same elements over the summer months, blending essential business with intentional pauses. Here is a look at what we're up to:

- Reflection (Our Strategic Direction): We are looking ahead to our next chapter. You are warmly invited to be part of the discussion surrounding our new 3-5 year strategic plan, "Growing in Hope: One Body, Many Stories." This plan incorporates a vital new multicultural lens. Please see the accompanying article in this newsletter for more details on the plan and how you can help shape it.
- Connection (The Chinese Ministry Team): We are thrilled to be formalizing our new Chinese Ministry Team! This inaugural group will steward the beautiful relationships, resources, and opportunities that have emerged as former Unity Mission members have joined our Hope family. If you would like to be part of this foundational team, please let Pastor Greg or Anne know.
- Renewal (Slowing Down to Prepare): To give our council members a chance to rest and recharge, we will not be holding a meeting in July. Instead, we are using this quieter season to focus our energy behind the scenes by re-forecasting the budget and finalizing the strategic plan so we are fully ready for the exciting season ahead this fall.

Wherever your paths lead you over the coming weeks, please know that you go with the prayers of your church leadership. May your summer be filled with laughter, deep rest, and sacred connection.

Wishing you all a safe, healthy, and blessed summer season!

In gratitude and peace,
Anne

Growing in Hope: One Body, Many Stories

A New Focus for a New Strategic Plan

Following the consensus of our council and staff at our recent strategic planning retreat, Hope Lutheran Church is intentionally adopting a multicultural lens to guide our community life over the next three to five years.

What does it mean to “take a multicultural lens”?

To “take a multicultural lens” means that multicultural ministry is not a new program, a separate initiative, or a specific group that meets at 2PM on Thursdays. It is a way of seeing — a pair of glasses we intentionally put on whenever we look at our ministries, our operations, our people, and our resources.

We will continue to have our governance committees (Council, Finance, Personnel, and Facilities); our core ministries of Worship & Music, Community Care (including care for seniors and those in transition), Faith Formation (formerly Children & Youth), and the emerging Chinese Ministry; and key programs, groups, and events like Wednesday Bible Study, Stitching for Hope, Men’s Breakfast, Mid-week Lenten Services, the Gathering Table, Fall Fair, and of course the Stampede Breakfast. What changes is not what we do, but how we approach everything we do.

Culture - A Society’s Personality

Culture is, in many ways, a society’s personality, or the way of life for an entire community. It is the sum total of learned beliefs, values, customs, communication styles, and behaviours that shape how people think, relate, and make decisions. Culture is learned, shared, and passed on. It influences how people worship, learn, communicate, and belong.

When we speak of multicultural ministry, we are not referring only to geography, race, or ethnicity. Culture is also reflected in our mindsets, socio-economic backgrounds, ages, occupations, genders, and life stages. Every one of these shapes how people experience church. Every one of these is part of culture.

How a Multicultural Lens Shapes Ministry

Taking a multicultural lens means that the approach, attitude, and execution of every committee, ministry, program, group, and event will be shaped by this broader understanding of culture. It invites us to ask:

- Who is already here?
- Who is not here yet?
- Whose stories, needs, and gifts are we not seeing?
- How do we design, communicate, and welcome in ways that honour the diversity God has already placed among us?

Over the next three to five years, this will also shape how we connect with people online through our digital presence and how we steward our physical building through rentals and facility use.

Rooted in Lutheran Theology

This commitment to multiculturalism is deeply rooted in our Lutheran theology and history. As a church tradition grounded in grace and the belief that the Holy Spirit is continuously reforming us, we look to the New Testament truth that the body of Christ is made up of many unique, indispensable parts. A multicultural lens simply helps us see those parts more clearly.

Balancing Outreach and “In-reach”

Having a multicultural lens is not just about outreach to cultural groups who are not currently reflected in our pews. Just as importantly, it is about looking inward. It is about cultural sharing:

- deepening our own understanding of each other,
- exploring where we come from,
- hearing each others’ stories,
- and celebrating the diverse heritages that already shape us as unique members of this faith community.

By seeing through this lens, we ensure that our promise of belonging is real, rooted in faith, and felt by everyone.

Mission, Vision, Values

Mission: Our Hope is to worship God, celebrate the good news of Jesus Christ our Saviour, share in Christ's community, and witness Jesus' love to the world.

Vision: To be a vibrant, joyful, dynamic, and creative community. A spiritual home built on faith and grace as the foundation, where belonging is the promise and compassion is our way of life.

Values: Belonging. Grace. Faithfulness. Compassion.

The purpose of the Strategic Plan is to be intentional about how we intend to live out our values and what work we will undertake that moves us toward our shared vision. The timeframe for this Strategic Plan is from 2026 (September) through to 2031 and is based on the information we have today (summer 2026). Council will review the Strategic Plan annually to evaluate outcomes, affirm learnings, and make adjustments as appropriate.

Strategic Plan At A Glance

Phase & Timeline	Strategic Focus (what we will prioritize)	Vision Statement Emphasis (How the vision anchors this phase)
Phase 1: Foundation & Learning Sept 2026 – Dec 2027	Listening, Learning, and Structural Assessment Focusing internal efforts on shifting mindsets, building cross-cultural trust, learning from community experts, and auditing our digital platforms and aligning our facility use toward cultural sharing and vibrancy.	"...built on faith and grace as the foundation, where belonging is the promise..." Focusing on humility, open ears, and ensuring our foundational structures—both online and in our building—are accessible to all.
Phase 2: Connection & Engagement Jan 2028 – Aug 2029	Cultivation, Connection, and Active Alignment Focusing efforts outward and inward by creating spaces for cultural sharing, launching a broader multicultural digital strategy, strengthening programs that cultivate connection, and serving alongside cultural communities.	"To be a vibrant, joyful, dynamic, and creative community..." Focusing on active, visible, and creative expressions of our shared life online, in our neighborhood, and within our walls.
Phase 3: Alignment & Evaluation Sept 2029 – Aug 2031	Reflection, Assessment, and Vision Discernment Focusing on checking in with the congregation, measuring the health of our relational, financial, digital, and physical spaces against our vision, and deciding future long-term directions.	"...where compassion is our way of life." Focusing on deep listening, caring for the health of the community, and discerning how well we are keeping our promises.

Help Shape Our Next Steps

This strategic direction is the culmination of years of engagement through discussion, surveys, meetings, and discernment among our church family and leadership. While Council and staff are in agreement that taking a multicultural lens is where God is calling us to explore and serve over the coming years, we are keen to continue walking this path alongside everyone in the Hope community.

Thank you for taking the time to read about where we're heading. If you have questions, ideas, concerns, or excitement to share, please know that Council wants to hear it all and is committed to incorporating your feedback to the greatest extent possible. Throughout the month of July and into August, please reach out and share your thoughts with any member of Council or staff.

Specifically, please plan to join us in the fireside room after worship on July 19th for some focused conversation. We'll share more examples about what we have in mind for the next 18 months and beyond, and welcome your questions and suggestions to strengthen the approach.

HOPE FINANCE COMMITTEE UPDATE

END OF MAY 2026 FINANCIAL UPDATE

Looking at the monthly data for May, we note that expenses out pace revenues by $751.00. This can be explained due to an error in not reporting all the May offerings and rental monies in the month of May. These amounts were input on June 1 and will be reflected in June's month end numbers. I take full responsibility for this reporting error.

We will have a couple of unexpected expenses coming due shortly. A new fridge for the kitchen is required. We did have some graffiti vandalism on the west wall of the church in April. We brought in a graffiti removal firm to rectify the issue. The cost of these two expenses should be between $2000 and $2500.

Our First Multicultural Story: The Chinese Ministry at Hope A Story of Migration, Ministry, and God's Faithfulness

By KC Lo, Ada Lo, & Deborah Leung

1. The First Wave: Hong Kong Immigration in the 1980s–1990s

The story of Chinese ministry in Calgary begins with the first major wave of Hong Kong immigration in the 1980s and 1990s. After the 1984 SinoBritish Joint Declaration confirmed that Hong Kong would return to Chinese sovereignty in 1997, many families faced deep uncertainty about the future. Canada became a place of hope and stability.

Newcomers arrived with limited English, few relatives, and little familiarity with Canadian systems and culture. Many rebuilt their lives from the ground up, relying on resilience and the desire to create a secure future for their children. During this time, churches became essential places of welcome. They offered friendship, cultural guidance, and practical support at a moment when many newcomers felt isolated. For countless Hong Kong families, the church was the first community that helped them feel at home.

2. Churches as Places of Community and Support

One of the most meaningful ways churches supported newcomers was through ESL—English as a Second Language—programs. Learning English was essential for daily life and employment. In Calgary, an English-speaking congregation recognized this need and encouraged a leader to establish what became the Agape Language Centre.

The ministry began with only two Chinese students. Yet the founders trusted God's calling, and the program grew quickly—first to 30 students, then 50, and eventually 70 within a year and a half. As the student body expanded, the ministry developed into a full learning centre offering language instruction, cultural orientation, and practical skills for life in Canada. Students were introduced to hymn singing and invited into the worship life of the church. An alumni community formed and became active in congregational life, even helping raise funds for a youth ministry building. Today, the Agape Language Centre continues to serve newcomers from many backgrounds, a testament to how God grows ministry from small beginnings.

3. The Formation of Hosanna Chinese Lutheran Church

As more Cantonese-speaking newcomers arrived in Calgary, the need for worship and ministry in Cantonese became increasingly evident. With support from the ELCIC, the first Chinese Lutheran Mission congregation in Calgary was officially founded on December 3, 1989. Rev. K. Wong was called to lead this emerging ministry. Over the next seven years, the congregation grew steadily, eventually welcoming more than seventy worshippers. With the encouragement and blessing of the Alberta Synod's Canadian Missions program, the community reached an important milestone: on October 6, 1996, Hosanna Chinese Lutheran Church was officially constituted as a church. A service of thanksgiving and celebration marked this significant moment in the life of the congregation—the first Cantonese-speaking Lutheran congregation in Calgary.

In the years that followed, the congregation experienced a period of human-resource restructuring. During this time, a group of members, together with a pastor, discerned a call toward a renewed direction and a fresh start. This group eventually left Hosanna and formed a new congregation known as Abundant Life Lutheran Church.

4. The Abundant Life Lutheran Community

Abundant Life Lutheran Church carried forward the desire to serve Cantonese-speaking families, offering renewed stability, community, and shared mission. It became a spiritual home for many families navigating the challenges of immigration and settlement.

Several years later, national decisions within the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Canada (ELCIC) regarding LGBTQ inclusion created theological tension within Abundant Life. The congregation eventually divided into two groups—those who supported the ELCIC's direction and those who did not. The pastor led the group that supported the ELCIC's position into a new ministry direction, which eventually developed into Lutheran Care Ministry (LCM) and Calgary Lutheran Unity Mission (Unity).

5. The Second Wave: Renewed Hong Kong Immigration (2019–Present)

A second wave of Hong Kong immigration began around 2019, driven by renewed political and social upheaval. Many residents—especially young adults, students, and families—again sought stability abroad. Alberta became increasingly attractive because of its affordability, educational opportunities, and growing Hong Kong diaspora. This new wave created fresh ministry opportunities for Lutheran communities in Calgary.

6. The Formation of LCM

In response to the increasing number of newcomers from Hong Kong, Lutheran Care Ministry (LCM) was formed under Synod funding, with Rev. Peter Chau serving as a key leader. LCM focused specifically on supporting Hong Kong immigrants—students, families, and individuals arriving in Calgary with little preparation or support. Its purpose was to embody Christ’s compassion through practical care, community connection, and spiritual support.

LCM’s work centred on outreach: welcoming newcomers, helping them navigate life in Canada, and building bridges of care and community. Through workshops, gatherings, and pastoral support, LCM became a vital point of contact for many Hong Kong families seeking stability and belonging in a new country.

7. The Birth and Closure of Calgary Lutheran Unity Mission (2022–2026)

Alongside LCM’s outreach ministry, a worshipping community began to take shape. This group, known as the Chinese Lutheran Fellowship (CLF), gathered regularly for God’s gospel and fellowship. CLF was the spiritual heart of the Cantonese-speaking community, rooted in the needs and experiences of Hong Kong newcomers and shaped by their desire for a faith community in their own language.

Building on the worshipping life of CLF, Calgary Lutheran Unity Mission (Unity) was formally established in September 2022. Unity met at Hope and sought to develop a church-based ministry with regular worship, pastoral care, and congregational structure. While LCM continued as an outreach ministry, Unity became the formal congregational expression of the Cantonese-speaking community.

Unity grew for a time but eventually faced significant challenges. Attendance declined, Synod funding was scheduled to end, and the ministry faced internal leadership challenges that made long-term sustainability difficult. The ministry was formally dissolved in March 2026.

8. Where We Are Today: Hope’s Ongoing Partnership and Opportunity

After Unity dissolved, Hope Lutheran Church discerned a call to care for the remaining Unity members who wished to continue worshipping and serving together. With generosity and openness, Hope welcomed this group into its congregational life, ensuring continuity of pastoral care, community, and spiritual support. This transition marked the beginning of a new chapter: a Chinese ministry rooted directly within Hope, shaped by God’s calling and Hope’s commitment to hospitality.

The needs of Hong Kong newcomers remain significant, and Hope is uniquely positioned to offer stability, belonging, and a spiritual home. The story of Hong Kong immigration—past and present—reminds us that God continues to bring people into our midst seeking safety, community, and faith. Hope Lutheran Church has the privilege of walking alongside them, trusting that God will continue to guide this ministry into the future.

FROM THE WIDER CHURCH

Summer 2026

Grace and peace to you in this summer season.

Summer arrives and with it a change of pace!

In a culture that often measures our worth by productivity, summer can remind us that God also calls us to rest, delight, and attention. Creation itself teaches this rhythm. Seeds grow without hurry. Rivers keep their steady course. Birds sing without agendas or schedules. Even Jesus stepped away to rest, pray, and be renewed.

Be encouraged this summer to live into a gentler pace. Make room for sabbath moments. Sit on a deck with your morning coffee and notice the breeze moving through the trees. Walk beside a lake or river and pray. Watch children play. Share meals slowly. Read Scripture outdoors. Let wonder interrupt your routines.

As you rest and travel, I also encourage you to remain connected to your faith community in creative ways. Summer schedules can scatter us, but community continues to matter deeply. Our congregations are relationships that sustain us, pray for us, and help shape our life together in Christ.

There are many simple ways to stay connected:

- Attend worship when you are in town, even if your summer routines are different. Remember your offerings through the summer,
- When travelling, visit another congregation to experience something new. Send a postcard to your congregation. Congregations could give space on a bulletin board to share summer experiences. Check in on social media,
- Join an outdoor worship service, Bible study, or campfire gathering,
- Share dog walking or pet sitting. Share favourite summer recipes,
- Connect by offering child care, yard care, home maintenance,
- Spend time at one of our church camps.

Summer does not ask us to abandon our faith practices. It invites us to carry them differently. A little more barefoot. A little more attentive. A little more alive to grace unfolding around us.

May the steadfast love of God accompany you wherever these summer days lead.

In Christ,

Bishop Trish Schmermund

REFLECTION & FUN

GARDEN TOUR by Kathy Lee

Those of my readers who grew up with an extended family living close by will have similar sentiments to mine, wonderful to recall. In the words of an old gospel song: Precious memories, how they linger... In my years on the farm I was surrounded by relatives on both my father's and my mother's side, living within a three-mile radius. Summers were delightful, with many visits back and forth, visits that always included checking out the vegetable garden and the flowers - especially the flowers- where we could ooh and ahh over their beauty. Come with me on a tour.

First stop: Uncle Arne and Aunt Evelyn. Arne was my dad's brother; Evelyn, my mom's sister, making us kids double cousins. They lived only a half-mile south of us and we spent a lot of time together. Their yard was a thing of beauty which included a weeping birch Uncle Arne planted beside the house. It grew into a graceful specimen that we loved to walk under. Auntie had quite a green thumb (her sweet peas were abundant and spectacular) and she was adventurous in planting seeds of things we'd never heard of or seen before: Maltese crosses, balsam, scabiosa. We were impressed.

(A note of interest: Every farmstead had poplar trees which were given as seedlings to settlers in the 1930s by the E.I.D. - Eastern Irrigation District- to be planted for windbreaks around their buildings. Because they grew fast, the trees were 50 or 60 feet tall in about 6 years.) Second stop, a mile to the west, as the crow flies: Uncle Chris and Aunt Grace. Auntie Grace was another of Mom's sisters. Every year she had morning glory vines growing beside the back door. The wall was covered right up to the eaves. No one else in the family grew those. You might say it was her signature. There were Shasta daisies and beautiful oriental poppies on the north side of the lawn. The poppies were definitely outside the box, to our mind, as the only other growers that we knew of in the community were the Slovaks and Hungarians.

Now we head north to the “Home Place” as my dad, Harry, always referred to it, where my widowed grandmother, Trina, and bachelor uncle, Ewald, lived. (My grandfather, Chris, had died in 1937.) Ewald was Dad’s brother. Grandma always had hollyhocks growing outside the dining room window and her petunias planted in a plot beside the walk leading to the back door were simply astonishing in size and colour- a velvety deep purple. Drifts of baby’s breath provided a suitable backdrop. What a welcome! Travelling west from there we reach the farm of Uncle Pete (another of my dad’s brothers) and Aunt Christine, right on the eastern edge of unbroken prairie. Their teeny, tiny house was tucked in behind a stand of caraganas that must have been at least 15 feet high.

There were no flower beds around the house but that was made up for in the vegetable garden. Christine’s specialty was gladioli. There were rows of them in every colour imaginable. They made stunning bouquets with super large blooms which the cultivars sold by florists today simply cannot match. She was so, so proud of them, with good reason.

A garden tour wouldn’t be complete without a stop at the home of my maternal grandparents, David and Marie. The vegetable / fruit garden, including gooseberries and red currants, was immense. Grandma’s Hansa rose bush was laden with fragrant, rosy-pink blooms, and the bees from the hives that Grandpa kept loved them. Every year a row of golden glows bloomed along the trees that bordered the west side of the lawn. None of the other relatives grew those.

Now we turn south again, for a brief visit with my godparents: Uncle Viggo and Aunt Anna (my dad’s sister.) A big drawing card for the cousins was the raspberry patch at the back of the garden. We kind of pigged out on them while our folks were inside the house visiting. I know there were flowers along the vegetable rows but my mind goes to the north side of the house. It was the site of the septic field where Aunt Anna grew pansies in the soil above it. They were huge. I have never seen any as large since. Back home now, where laurel leaf willows bordered the house on the east and south. And whereas some of the relatives grew common lilacs and/or honeysuckles we had two Villosa lilacs with their pale lavender-pink blooms. The central flower bed in the side yard was a showpiece. The specialty of my mother, Gladys, was portulacas (or moss roses, as she called them) and they bloomed in profusion. The soil of the flowerbeds along the picket fence presented a challenge to many annuals, but calendulas did very well, yielding an abundance of blooms that graced our table throughout the summer. White alyssum planted as a border along the walkway grew as large as frying pans and bloomed faithfully until well past the first frost in the fall. I can still picture them to this day.

I hope you enjoyed this little journey into my past. It was my pleasure to be your tour guide. Have a wonderful, colourful summer in God’s beautiful garden! See you in September, God-willing.

Cook Time: 10 minutes mins

This bruschetta pasta salad is a summer staple! Juicy ripe tomatoes, fresh basil, shaved parmesan and the most delicious balsamic dressing. Serve immediately or make ahead of time and it's perfect. Ideal for a party or just great for dinner - a dish that goes with everything!

Recipe from: <https://www.howsweeteats.com/2023/07/bruschetta-pasta-salad/>

Ingredients

- 1 pound short-cut pasta (such as mafaldini)
- 1 ½ cups of halved cherry or grape tomatoes
- ½ white onion diced
- ½ cup of chiffonade fresh basil
- ⅓ cup shaved parmesan cheese

Balsamic dressing

- 4 cloves garlic, minced
- 2 tablespoons balsamic vinegar
- 1 ½ tablespoons dijon mustard
- 1 tablespoon of sugar
- 1 teaspoon dried oregano
- kosher salt and pepper
- ½ cup extra virgin olive oil

Instructions

- Cook the pasta in salted water according to the directions.
- Combine the tomatoes with half of the basil, the onion and 3 tablespoons of the dressing. Let this sit until the pasta is done and everything is ready to combine.
- Drain the pasta and place it in a large bowl. Toss with half of the dressing - you want every noodle coated well. Add in the whole tomato basil mixture, tossing well to distribute. Add in the rest of the basil and the parmesan cheese. Add in the rest of the dressing and toss.
- Serve! This stays great in the fridge and gets better as it sits, aside from a few wilted herbs. Feel free to add fresh basil when serving!

Balsamic dressing

Whisk together the garlic, vinegar, sugar, mustard, oregano and a big pinch of salt and pepper. Whisk in the olive oil until the mixture is thickened and emulsified. This can be made ahead of time and stored in the fridge until ready to use! Just whisk or shake before using.
