All In

By Michael Orr

I'm all in,
One hundred percent,
Though I'm short on the dollar,
Or off by a cent.

My hands are committed,
My mind is made up,
Not a drop or a trickle,
But the whole of my cup.

For hope is a river,
That runs without fail,
Through drought and abundance,
All in will prevail.

And though I may muddle,
Through shortfalls and fears,
This lifelong redemption,
Holds fast through the years.

By grace I am grounded,
By faith I am moved,
Where patience is tempered,
And glory is proved.

So I turn my feet forward,
From where I have been,
As I follow my Savior,
To a place called all in.
