Encouragement Center Theme for July: The Power of Words

Words are small things, but they carry great power. With words we can encourage the weak, comfort the grieving, teach the lost, and strengthen the faithful. With words we can also wound, discourage, deceive, and destroy. The Bible repeatedly reminds us that our speech is not a small matter before God.

A single careless statement can spread like fire (James 3:5). Gossip, harsh criticism, angry outbursts, and false accusations can do damage that is difficult to repair. Because of this, Christians must learn to control the tongue rather than be controlled by it.

Jesus taught that our words reveal the condition of the heart (Matthew 12:34). If our hearts are filled with bitterness, pride, envy, or anger, those things will eventually show themselves in our speech. But if our hearts are filled with love for God, humility, truth, and concern for others, our words will reflect that as well.

As Christians, our speech should be different from the world's. Paul instructed, "Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying" (Ephesians 4:29). Before we speak, we should ask: Is it true? Is it kind? Is it necessary? Will it help build up, or will it tear down? Silence is often better than speech that is careless, cruel, or unwise.

The power of words is also seen in the gospel itself. God chose preaching as the means by which the message of salvation would be made known (Romans 10:14-17). Through words, the good news of Christ's death, burial, and resurrection is proclaimed. Through words, sinners are taught to believe, repent, confess Christ, and be baptized for the remission of sins (Mark 16:16; Acts 2:38; Romans 10:10). No message is more important than the word of God.

May we use our words carefully and faithfully. Let us speak truth but speak it in love (Ephesians 4:15). Let us avoid gossip, slander, filthy language, and needless strife. Let us be people whose words bring honor to God and help to others. Words matter. Let us use them for good, for truth, and for the glory of God.

If you need a prayer request added, updated or removed, please use the back of the welcome card and place the card in the collection plate.
