

BACKGROUND PASSAGE(S): Philippians 1:1; 27; 2:1-2; 4:2-4; Titus 2:6-8; Psalm 133:1; Romans 16:17; 1 Corinthians 12:24-26.

KEY VERSE(s): – Philippians 4:2 – I implore Euodia and I implore Syntyche to be of the same mind in the Lord.

What are a few things we can learn about Euodia and Syntyche from this text, as there is not much information given on them.

Paul expresses throughout the Philippian letter that there are at least 2 things that can be detrimental to the health and well-being of the church – what are they? (Answer and discuss why correcting these 2 things are so important for the well-being of the church.)

When there is a lack of unity, within the church, it generally stems from 3 things, what are these 3 things?

1.

2.

3.

Discuss how each of these can hinder unity within the church – also, what can we do individually and as a body to promote unity within the church?

Discuss who Paul is addressing in Philippians 4:3 - And I urge you also, true companion, help these women who labored with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and the rest of my fellow workers, whose names are in the Book of Life.

9 times throughout Philippians Paul uses the word “rejoice”. He repeats several times that believers are to rejoice in the Lord. What is the key to rejoicing, regardless of the circumstances.

What is your “take-away” from this week’s study and how can it be applied to your daily walk with Christ?

Perhaps the most common error people make when studying the Bible is to read meaning into the verses as opposed to discovering meaning from proper context. Here is a basic method to use when studying a verse or passage that will help you avoid this. Always begin each time of Bible study with prayer, asking God to help you understand what you are reading correctly.

1) Observation

What does the passage say?

Read the passage then look back to see what the passage is saying. Look for repeated words, key phrases, and cross-references. Think about questions that you have after reading. Allow your curiosity to lead you further in understanding.

Who? What? When? Where? Why? How? What else do you notice?

What other questions arise from the passage?

2) Interpretation

What does the passage mean?

After observing what was said in the text, interpretation seeks to understand what God, through the book's author, is seeking to communicate through this text. Context is crucial to determining the meaning. Outside resources like Bible dictionaries and commentaries can help at this point.

What is the context? Why is the author bringing this up?

What is God saying through this passage?

What is the main point of this passage?

3) Application

How do I need to respond?

It's easy to read through passages, especially those familiar to us, without taking time to stop and think about how we can practically apply the truths we studied.

How should I live my life in light of this passage?

How does this truth compel me to be transformed?

What does it look like to put this into practice?

"But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man observing his natural face in a mirror; for he observes himself, goes away, and immediately forgets what kind of man he was. But he who looks into the perfect law of liberty and continues in it, and is not a forgetful hearer but a doer of the work, this one will be blessed in what he does."

-James 1:22-25 (NKJV)
