ELDER CHALLENGE

The elders have challenged each member to choose one person to pray for every day for the remainder of the year. There is a prayer board set up in the foyer with pen, paper and envelopes to designate the person to be blessed by your prayers. Confidentiality is up to you and will be respected. Let's all accept this challenge and expect great things. James 5:16 conveys that the wholehearted, passionate prayer of those in right standing with God has immense power and will produce significant, impactful results.

What's In It For You?

By Michael Orr

As we sat down for our supper,
In my heart I thought it through,
And I asked my Lord and Savior,
What's in it, Lord, for You?

For all of Heaven's treasures,
Are poured out from above,
Each blessing offered freely,
As tokens of your love.

You offered your own body,
A sacrifice for sin,
Your blood for our atonement,
For the wounded world of men.

No mercy for your sorrow,
For each drop of blood you gave,
Was the price of our redemption,
To bring freedom from the grave.

But what could you be thinking,
To carry all in one,
The price of our salvation,
Through the death of God's own son?

And He said...

My child, dear beloved,
You are joyful, full and free,
And to dine with you forever,
Is what's in it now for me.
