THE STORY OF FAITH IS PROCLAIMED

A Reading from the book of Genesis 25. 19-34

Psalm 119. 105-112

- 105 Your word is a lantern to my feet *
and a light upon my path.
- 106 I have sworn and am determined *
to keep your righteous judgements.
- 107 I am deeply troubled; *
preserve my life, O Lord, according to your word.
- 108 Accept, O Lord, the willing tribute of my lips, *
and teach me your judgements.
- 109 My life is always in my hand, *
yet I do not forget your law.
- 110 The wicked have set a trap for me, *
but I have not strayed from your commandments.
- 111 Your decrees are my inheritance for ever; *
truly, they are the joy of my heart.
- 112 I have applied my heart to fulfil your statutes *
for ever and to the end.

Sermon Rev. Juli Mallett

This detail from Rogier van der Weyden's 'Descent from the Cross' depicts Christ with a halo, looking directly at the viewer. He has a beard and long dark hair. He is wearing a dark robe over a reddish-brown garment. His right hand is raised in a gesture of blessing or sorrow. In the background, a golden building with a cross on its facade is visible, along with a landscape featuring a river and distant hills.

Gathering our prayers and praises into one,

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,

We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us,
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your name.
Amen.
