"[Faithfulness] is the daily oblation of ourselves and all our actions to God out of compassion for others, especially in service of their concrete needs. It serves God without dwelling on what God or others will do for us, and perseveres in giving without thinking of any return. Our normal need for affirmation is coming from a new place: the growing conviction of being loved by God that greatly reduces the desire for human approval."

- Thomas Keating, "FRUITS AND GIFTS OF THE SPIRIT"
