

I'm not ashamed of the gospel: it is God's own power for salvation to all who have faith in God.
— Roman 1:16a (CEB)

Grace begins when I stop pretending I am _____ on my own.

Sin often begins when I ask _____ to do what only God can do.

They traded God's truth for a lie, and they worshipped and served the creation instead of the creator. — Romans 1:25a (CEB)

Conviction is not God's rejection; it is _____.

To gospel is not advise for self-improvement; it is _____ — Romans 1:16

I don't need grace because I am worse than others. I need grace because I am _____.

Reflection Questions:

- † Where in my life am I trying to prove that I are enough on my own?
- † What created thing am I asking to give me what only God can give?
- † How might God be inviting me to stop pretending and receive grace this week?

Challenge

This week, identify one place where you are trying to prove yourself. Name it honestly before God and pray each day: "God, I need Your grace here. Help me stop proving and start trusting."

Daily Prayer

God of grace, I confess that I often try to be enough on my own. I look to created things for worth, peace, safety, and identity, yet they cannot give me what only You can give. Help me stop pretending and open my heart to Your grace. Amen.
