DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Taste & See

- 1 When was the last time you felt like you were in over your head, and you needed something outside of you to help you out of it?
- 2 Read 1 Samuel 21:10-15. In what ways was David's back against the wall with no way out?
- 3 Read Psalm 34:1-3. This Psalm is a response to what God did to deliver David. How did thankfulness and rejoicing play out in your story of being in a tough place and then finding deliverance?
- 4 How do you feel about the idea of Blessing God? The Psalmist says I will extol God or Bless God at all times. How do we bless God and we are the ones who receive blessing from him?
- 5 Read Psalm 34:4-10. When have you experienced verse 4? How is our salvation story tied to these verses?
- 6 The invitation in this Psalm is to taste and see. Do you think it is our job to convince people of God and his goodness or just invite them to experience Him themselves and to taste and see? Why might this be a helpful approach?
- 7 Read Psalm 34:11-22. In what ways have you seen or experienced the goodness described in verse 12-14? According to this passage, do things always go easy and well for the righteous? Why is this hard to reconcile?
- 8 How have you seen evil slay the wicked described in verse 21?
- 9 How high is your "Bless the Lord" level? If we are to bless the Lord at all times, what season are you in right now, and what would it look like to bless the Lord now in the season you are in?

Psalm 34

1I will extol the Lord at all times; his praise will always be on my lips.
2I will glory in the Lord; let the afflicted hear and rejoice. 3Glorify the Lord with me; let us exalt his name together. 4I sought the Lord, and he answered me; he delivered me from all my fears. 5Those who look to him are radiant; their faces are never covered with shame. 6This poor man called, and the Lord heard him; he saved him out of all his troubles. 7The angel of the Lord encamps around those who fear him, and he delivers them. 8Taste and see that the Lord is good; blessed is the one who takes refuge in him. 9Fear the Lord, you his holy people, for those who fear him lack nothing. 10The lions may grow weak and hungry, but those who seek the Lord lack no good thing. 11Come, my children, listen to me; I will teach you the fear of the Lord. 12Whoever of you loves life and desires to see many good days, 13keep your tongue from evil and your lips from telling lies. 14Turn from evil and do good; seek peace and pursue it. 15The eyes of the Lord are on the righteous, and his ears are attentive to their cry; 16but the face of the Lord is against those who do evil, to blot out their name from the earth. 17The righteous cry out, and the Lord hears them; he delivers them from all their troubles. 18The Lord is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit. 19The righteous person may have many troubles, but the Lord delivers him from them all; 20he protects all his bones, not one of them will be broken. 21Evil will slay the wicked; the foes of the righteous will be condemned. 22The Lord will rescue his servants; no one who takes refuge in him will be condemned.
