Job 16:4 TLB

But perhaps I'd sermonize the same as you-if you were I and I were you. I would spout off my criticisms against you and shake my head at you.

Matthew 7:26-29 HCSB

[26] But everyone who hears these words of Mine and doesn't act on them will be like a foolish man who built his house on the sand. [27] The rain fell, the rivers rose, the winds blew and pounded that house, and it collapsed. And its collapse was great!" [28] When Jesus had finished this sermon, the crowds were astonished at His teaching, [29] because He was teaching them like one who had authority, and not like their scribes.

Matthew 13:2 TLB

where an immense crowd soon gathered. He got into a boat and taught from it while the people listened on the beach. He used many illustrations such as this one in his sermon: "A farmer was sowing grain in his fields.

Mark 1:22 TLB

The congregation was surprised at his sermon because he spoke as an authority and didn't try to prove his points by quoting others-quite unlike what they were used to hearing!

Luke 4:15 TLB

for his sermons in the synagogues; everyone praised him.

Luke 6:39 TLB

Here are some of the story-illustrations Jesus used in his sermons: "What good is it for one blind man to lead another? He will fall into a ditch and pull the other down with him.

Luke 8:13 TLB

The stony ground represents those who enjoy listening to sermons, but somehow the message never really gets through to them and doesn't take root and grow. They know the message is true, and sort of believe for a while; but when the hot winds of persecution blow, they lose interest.

Luke 11:29 TLB

As the crowd pressed in upon him, he preached them this sermon: "These are evil times, with evil people. They keep asking for some strange happening in the skies to prove I am the Messiah, but the only proof I will give them is a miracle like that of Jonah, whose experiences proved to the people of Nineveh that God had sent him. My similar experience will prove that God has sent me to these people.

Luke 15:1 TLB

Dishonest tax collectors and other notorious sinners often came to listen to Jesus' sermons;

John 6:59 TLB

(He preached this sermon in the synagogue in Capernaum.)

Acts 18:25 TLB

While he was in Egypt, someone had told him about John the Baptist and what John had said about Jesus, but that is all he knew. He had never heard the rest of the story! So he was preaching boldly and enthusiastically in the synagogue, "The Messiah is coming! Get ready to receive him!" Priscilla and Aquila were there and heard him-and it was a powerful sermon. Afterwards they met with him and explained what had happened to Jesus since the time of John, and all that it meant!

Acts 20:10 TLB

Paul went down and took him into his arms. "Don't worry," he said, "he's all right!" And he was! What a wave of awesome joy swept through the crowd! They all went back upstairs and ate the Lord's Supper together; then Paul preached another long sermon-so it was dawn when he finally left them!

Romans 12:8 TLB

If you are a preacher, see to it that your sermons are strong and helpful. If God has given you money, be generous in helping others with it. If God has given you administrative ability and put you in charge of the work of others, take the responsibility seriously. Those who offer comfort to the sorrowing should do so with Christian cheer.

1 Corinthians 1:17 TLB

For Christ didn't send me to baptize, but to preach the Gospel; and even my preaching sounds poor, for I do not fill my sermons with profound words and high-sounding ideas, for fear of diluting the mighty power there is in the simple message of the cross of Christ.

1 Corinthians 14:24 TLB

But if you prophesy, preaching God's Word, even though such preaching is mostly for believers, and an unsaved person or a new Christian comes in who does not understand about these things, all these sermons will convince him of the fact that he is a sinner, and his conscience will be pricked by everything he hears.

2 Timothy 4:17 TLB

But the Lord stood with me and gave me the opportunity to boldly preach a whole sermon for all the world to hear. And he saved me from being thrown to the lions.
