Results Coming. Pray!

There have been moments in the life of this congregation when anticipation has filled the air. We have prayed, worked, invited, taught, encouraged, and trusted God. Then we wait. Results are coming.

Whether we are awaiting the outcome of a special event, a community outreach effort, Bible studies, mission work, or simply the seeds we've been planting in the hearts of family, friends, and neighbors, one truth remains, God gives the increase (1 Corinthians 3:6-7).

It is tempting to measure success only by numbers, attendance, or immediate responses. Yet Scripture reminds us that faithfulness always comes before fruitfulness. Isaiah declared that God's word "shall not return to me empty, but it shall accomplish that which I purpose" (Isaiah 55:11). Sometimes we see the harvest quickly. At other times, the seed grows quietly beneath the surface for months or even years.

As we await results, our greatest work is not worrying, it is praying. Pray that hearts will remain open to the gospel. Pray that those who heard God's Word will continue to seek Him. Pray for new Christians to grow in faith. Pray for our elders, deacons, teachers, and ministry leaders as they shepherd those who are seeking Christ. Pray that our congregation will remain humble, giving God all the glory for every soul that is influenced.

The early church understood this well. After proclaiming Christ, they continually devoted themselves to prayer (Acts 2:42). Paul repeatedly asked Christians to pray that "the word of the Lord may speed ahead and be honored" (2 Thessalonians 3:1). They knew that while Christians plant and water, only God can transform a heart.

Results are coming, but whatever those results may be, let us meet them with grateful hearts, unwavering faith, and persistent prayer. May we never stop sowing the seed of the kingdom, and may we never stop asking God to bless the work done in His name.

If you need a prayer request added, updated or removed , please use the back of the welcome card and place the card in the collection plate.

Or, you may Email the request to pgr@tampabay.rr.com or text 352-601-7306.
