Welcome to Ordinary Time at Gloria Dei

Today we welcome Rev. Paul Harris, a long-time friend of Gloria Dei who is helping to cover a few services while Rev. Chris is on vacation. We are also continuing in the season of Ordinary Time, with its focus on growth (as symbolized by the color green on the altar). Thankfully, we worship a God who doesn't expect perfection from us, but who calls us ever onward to further growth and maturity; these things don't happen except by making mistakes and learning from them – and by accepting that God loves us perfectly in all our imperfection. Throughout this season, may we grow in our awareness of that love and faithfulness, and may we then extend a similar love and grace to each other and to those around us.

Celebrant Blessed be the one, holy, and living God.
People Glory to God for ever and ever.
 Celebrant Let us give thanks to God, using the First Song of Isaiah (Isaiah 12:2-6).
All Surely, it is God who saves me;
I will trust in God and not be afraid.
For the Lord is my stronghold and my sure defense,
and God will be my Savior.
Therefore you shall draw water with rejoicing from the springs of salvation.
And on that day you shall say,
give thanks to the Lord and call upon God's Name;
Make God's deeds known among the peoples;
see that they remember that God's Name is exalted.
Sing the praises of the Lord, for God has done great things,
and this is known in all the world.
Cry aloud, inhabitants of Zion, ring out your joy, for the great one in the midst of you is the Holy One of Israel.
Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit:
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
 Celebrant Let us pray.
All O God, the protector of all who trust in you, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy: Increase and multiply upon us your mercy; that, with you as our ruler and guide, we may so pass through things temporal, that we lose not the things eternal; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

(The congregation is invited to sit for the readings.)

First Reading

Genesis 29:15-28

Cathy Ufheil

Laban said to Jacob, "Because you are my kinsman, should you therefore serve me for nothing? Tell me, what shall your wages be?" Now Laban had two daughters; the name of the elder was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel. Leah's eyes were lovely, and Rachel was graceful and beautiful. Jacob loved Rachel; so he said, "I will serve you seven years for your younger daughter Rachel." Laban said, "It is better that I give her to you than that I should give her to any other man; stay with me." So Jacob served seven years for Rachel, and they seemed to him but a few days because of the love he had for her.

Then Jacob said to Laban, "Give me my wife that I may go in to her, for my time is completed." So Laban gathered together all the people of the place, and made a feast. But in the evening he took his daughter Leah and brought her to Jacob; and he went in to her. (Laban gave his maid Zilpah to his daughter Leah to be her maid.) When morning came, it was Leah! And Jacob said to Laban, "What is this you have done to me? Did I not serve with you for Rachel? Why then have you deceived me?" Laban said, "This is not done in our country—giving the younger before the firstborn. Complete the week of this one, and we will give you the other also in return for serving me another seven years." Jacob did so, and completed her week; then Laban gave him his daughter Rachel as a wife.

All Thanks be to God.

Psalms 105:1-11, 45b

Give thanks to the LORD and call upon his Name; *
make known his deeds among the peoples.
Sing to him, sing praises to him, *
and speak of all his marvelous works.
Glory in his holy Name; *
let the hearts of those who seek the LORD rejoice.
Search for the LORD and his strength; *
continually seek his face.
Remember the marvels he has done, *
his wonders and the judgments of his mouth,
O offspring of Abraham his servant, *
O children of Jacob his chosen.
He is the LORD our God; *
his judgments prevail in all the world.
He has always been mindful of his covenant, *
the promise he made for a thousand generations:
The covenant he made with Abraham, *
the oath that he swore to Isaac,
Which he established as a statute for Jacob, *
an everlasting covenant for Israel, Saying, "To you will I give the land of Canaan *
to be your allotted inheritance."
Hallelujah!

Second Reading

Romans 8:26-39

The Spirit helps us in our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but that very Spirit intercedes with sighs too deep for words. And God, who searches the heart, knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God.

We know that all things work together for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose. For those whom he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the firstborn within a large family. And those whom he predestined he also called; and those whom he called he also justified; and those whom he justified he also glorified.

What then are we to say about these things? If God is for us, who is against us? He who did not withhold his own Son, but gave him up for all of us, will he not with him also give us everything else? Who will bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies. Who is to condemn? It is Christ Jesus, who died, yes, who was raised, who is at the right hand of God, who indeed intercedes for us. Who will separate us from the love of Christ? Will hardship, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? As it is written, "For your sake we are being killed all day long; we are accounted as sheep to be slaughtered."

No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor rulers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.
All Thanks be to God.

Gospel Reading

Rev. Paul Harris

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew (13:31-33, 44-52).
All Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus put before the crowds another parable: "The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed that someone took and sowed in his field; it is the smallest of all the seeds, but when it has grown it is the greatest of shrubs and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and make nests in its branches."

He told them another parable: "The kingdom of heaven is like yeast that a woman took and mixed in with three measures of flour until all of it was leavened."

"The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which someone found and hid; then in his joy he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field."

"Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant in search of fine pearls; on finding one pearl of great value, he went and sold all that he had and bought it."

"Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net that was thrown into the sea and caught fish of every kind; when it was full, they drew it ashore, sat down, and put the good into baskets but threw out the bad. So it will be at the end of the age. The angels will come out and separate the evil from the righteous and throw them into the furnace of fire, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth."

"Have you understood all this?" They answered, "Yes." And he said to them, "Therefore every scribe who has been trained for the kingdom of heaven is like the master of a household who brings out of his treasure what is new and what is old."

Celebrant The Gospel of the Lord.
All Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Sermon Rev. Paul Harris

The sermon is an opportunity to consider the readings alongside the full witness of Scripture and tradition, asking how these readings impact our lives. You are not necessarily expected to agree with the preacher, and more discussion is always welcome! Following the sermon, we stand together to confess our faith. The ancient Nicene Creed is a helpful guide, but we also know that healthy faith makes room for doubts and questions.

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father,
 the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
 of all that is, seen and unseen.
 We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
 the only Son of God,
 eternally begotten of the Father,
 God from God, Light from Light,
 true God from true God, begotten, not made,
 of one Being with the Father.
 Through him all things were made.
 For us and for our salvation
 he came down from heaven:
 by the power of the Holy Spirit
 he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
 and was made man.
 For our sake he was crucified under Pontius
 Pilate; he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again
 in accordance with the Scriptures;
 he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
 He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.
 We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
 He has spoken through the Prophets.
 We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
 We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
 We look for the resurrection of the dead,
 and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Celebrant	Beloved people of Gloria Dei: We have gathered to celebrate God's perfect love for us, and for all of creation. As we seek to reflect that love in both unity and diversity, let us pray for the needs of our community and the world around us. (Silence)
Intercessor	For believers around the world and across time, each worshipping God in their own language and traditions;
People	That we might be known by our love for God and for one another. (Silence)
Intercessor	For America, and all the nations of the world, especially those plagued by violence, corruption, or any other turmoil;
People	That God's justice and peace might flourish in our nation, and in every corner of the earth. (Silence)
Intercessor	For our leaders and those in authority: in the church... in our community... and across our country;
People	That they might grow in wisdom, humility, and integrity. (Silence)
Intercessor	For all God's creatures throughout this beautiful and fragile world that God has entrusted to us;
People	That we might be responsible and creative caretakers. (Silence)
Intercessor	For the needs of this community, and for all who face suffering or distress. Today we pray especially for:
People	Joanne, Isaiah, Deb, Wayne, Bob, Kim, Herb, Frank, Karen, Heather, Sara, John, Erica, Elia, Eulogio, Sheila, Amy, William, Betty, Dina, Beth, Thomassina, Julie, Denise, Jason, Peggy, Joanna, Mark, Margie, Bonnie, Keith, Connie, and Jack. (Long silence; additional names may be spoken aloud)
Intercessor	For those who have died, and for all who grieve;
People	That we might look with hope to the resurrection. (Long silence for names to be added)
Celebrant	Almighty God, to whom our needs are known before we ask, help us to ask only what accords with your will; and those good things which we dare not, or in our blindness cannot ask, grant us for the sake of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Our prayers conclude with a time of corporate confession. In speaking of sin and confession, it is never our goal to dwell in shame or guilt. Rather, we acknowledge that we live in a world beset by evil and injustice – and that we all bear some degree of responsibility for that reality. This acknowledgement is one of the first steps toward healing what is broken in our lives and in our world – and we trust that God's love is always working for healing, justice, and redemption.

Confession, Absolution, and Peace

Celebrant	Let us confess our sins to God. (silence)
All	God of all mercy, we confess that we have sinned against you, opposing your will in our lives. We have denied your goodness in each other, in ourselves, and in the world you have created. We repent of the evil that enslaves us, the evil we have done, and the evil done on our behalf. Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love and serve only your will. Amen.
Celebrant	Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.
Celebrant	The Peace of the Lord be always with you.
People	And also with you. (Please share the peace by greeting your siblings in Christ.)

Offertory Sentence

Search for the Lord and the Lord's strength; continually seek God's face. Remember the marvels God has done.

-Psalm 105: 4-5a

Collecting an offering reminds us that all we have is a gift from God, and that we are to be responsible stewards of the gifts entrusted to us. Guests are welcome to support our work of worship, ministry, and preservation - but should feel no obligation to give. Electronic giving is possible using the QR code found on the back of the bulletin. After the collection, the offering is brought forward as we stand to sing:

Flowingly, in 1

Unknown

The Holy Communion –Eucharistic Prayer 3 (from Enriching Our Worship)

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant All thanks and praise are yours at all times and in all places, our true and loving God, through Jesus Christ, your eternal Word, the Wisdom from on high by whom you created all things. You laid the foundations of the world and enclosed the sea when it burst out from the womb of creation; You brought forth all creatures of the earth and gave breath to humankind. Wondrous are you, Holy One of Blessing, all you create is a sign of hope for our journey; And so as the morning stars sing your praises we join the heavenly beings and all creation as we sing with joy:

Flowingly

Paul Fejko

Celebrant Glory and honor are yours, Creator of all; your Word has never been silent; you called a people to yourself, as a light to the nations; you delivered them from bondage and led them to a land of promise. Of your grace, you gave Jesus to be human, to share our life, to proclaim the coming of your holy reign and give himself for us, a fragrant offering. Through Jesus Christ our Redeemer, you have freed us from sin, brought us into your life, reconciled us to you, and restored us to the glory you intend for us.

Celebrant We thank you that on the night before he died for us Jesus took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, gave it to his friends and said: "Take, eat, this is my Body, broken for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper Jesus took the cup of wine, said the blessing, gave it to his friends and said: "Drink this, all of you: this cup is the new Covenant in my Blood, poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me."

And so, remembering all that was done for us: the cross, the tomb, the resurrection and ascension, longing for Christ's coming in glory, and presenting to you these gifts your earth has formed and human hands have made, we acclaim you, O Christ:

All Dying, you destroyed our death. Rising, you restored our life. Christ Jesus, come in glory!

Celebrant Send your Holy Spirit upon us and upon these gifts of bread and wine that they may be to us the Body and Blood of your Christ. Grant that we, burning with your Spirit's power, may be a people of hope, justice and love. Giver of Life, draw us together in the Body of Christ, and in the fullness of time gather us with all your people into the joy of our true eternal home. Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, we worship you our God and Creator in voices of unending praise.

All Blessed are you now and for ever. AMEN.

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name;
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Fraction & Invitation

Celebrant Alleluia! We break this bread to share in the Body of Christ.

All We who are many are one body, for we all share in the one bread. Alleluia!

Celebrant This is the table not of the church but of our Lord Jesus. It is made ready for those who love him and those who want to love him more. So come, you who have much faith and you who have little, you who have been here often, and you who have not been here long, you who have tried to follow, and you who have failed. Come, because it is Jesus who invites you. It is his will that those who want him should meet him here.

All who wish to receive communion are welcome to come forward at this time.
Instructions for receiving are found on the following page.

*Episcopal theology recognizes baptism as the formal entry into the Christian community, and baptism is normally a prerequisite to receiving communion. However, we also recognize that God meets us wherever we are on our journey of faith. Moreover, Jesus regularly welcomed and ate with people from outside of his normal community. Therefore, all are welcome at this table - including children!

Kneel or stand at the rail, as you are comfortable. Gluten free wafers and grape juice are available – just hold up one finger to receive either of these alternative elements. The priest will distribute wafers, which you receive in your outstretched hands. If you wish to receive the cup, you may drink or dip your wafer; it is also okay to receive the wafer only – we believe that Jesus is fully present in each of the elements of communion. If you prefer not to receive, you are still warmly invited to come forward and cross your arms to receive a blessing.

Post Communion Prayer

Celebrant	Let us stand and pray together the post communion prayer.
All	God of abundance, you have fed us with the bread of life and cup of salvation; you have united us with Christ and one another; and you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth. Now send us forth in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

Blessing & Announcements Rev. Paul Harris

Closing Hymn # 472 Hope of the World, Thou Chris of Great Compassion Hymnal 1982

Dismissal

Celebrant	Alleluia, alleluia. Let us go in peace to love and serve the Lord.
People	Thanks be to God. Alleluia, alleluia.

Postlude

All are invited to listen to the postlude,
and then to join us for a time of fellowship in Riverside Hall.

Musical Meditation – on summer hiatus until September 15th!

After Labor Day, look for the return of our Musical Meditation service, which includes communal drumming, silence, group reflection on scripture, and performances by musically talented members.

Lunch Packing Outreach – July 26 & August 30

Our Missions Committee has been doing great work to care for people in need in our surrounding communities. Please join us after services to pack lunches for Prevention Point (a ministry in Kensington). Donations of the following items are always welcomed: paper lunch bags, paper sandwich bags, individually wrapped candies & individually bagged chips. Monetary donations are also gratefully accepted.

Construction has begun on our stormwater management system!

We're delighted that Gloria Dei Church and Preserve Old Swedes have received over $1,000,000 in grants in 2025, which will support the installation of a new roof on the church, repairs to the bell, a stormwater management system and resurfaced parking lot, and more! Construction on the major projects will take place this year (and possibly beyond), and updates will be provided as plans are finalized. To get involved in our ongoing preservation and fundraising efforts, talk with Rev. Chris or Amy Grant (President of Preserve Old Swedes).

School Supplies for ECS and the Sisters of Saint Basil

In preparation for the next school year, the Missions Committee has decided to make donations to both Episcopal Community Services (ECS) and the Sisters of Saint Basil (at the local Ukrainian Cathedral, which serves many immigrant families). If you'd like to contribute, you can learn more about ECS' efforts on their website (<https://www.ecsphilly.org/gear-up-for-school/>); Jill Duink or Cathy Ufheil can also help to connect you with the Sisters of Saint Basil.

Religious Freedom Trail

As we mark the 250th anniversary of the founding of our country, Interfaith Philadelphia has created a year long program centered around a new Religious Freedom Walk. This walk highlight the many sites in our city which played a significant role in establishing religious freedom as a core value in the United States – to include Gloria Dei! You can learn more about the Religious Freedom Walk, and the numerous associated events, by picking up a Passport to Understanding in the back of the church, or by visiting <https://www.interfaithphiladelphia.org/religious-freedom-then-now/>.

Missions Committee Meetings – Wednesday, August 5, at 9:00am on Zoom

Our Missions Committee meets each month on the first Wednesday to discuss our current outreach efforts and potential new opportunities. New members and new ideas are always welcome.

(Meeting ID: 897 2826 6283 Passcode: 098374)

Make a Meal for St. Gabriel's – Wednesday, July 29 from 6:30 – 9:00pm

Throughout this year, our congregation has been providing a meal every other month to support St. Gabriel's Episcopal Church in Feltonville (North Philadelphia). A network of churches helps them feed their local community every Saturday, and we have been able to fill a persistent hole in their schedule. The next Saturday that we will be cooking for is August 1. Contact Jill Duink or Rachel Armstrong if you'd like to help with delivering & serving the meal on August 1.

Rev. Chris on Vacation: July 20 – August 12

Rev. Chris will be taking some time off at the end of July and beginning of August, as his family enjoys camping and visiting NPS sites around the Great Lakes. While he is away, Rev. Paul Harris will lead services on July 26 and August 9, while Rachel Armstrong will lead Morning Prayer on August 2. If pastoral emergencies or other urgent matters come up while Rev. Chris is away, please reach out to the church office.

Red Cross Blood Drive in Riverside Hall – Friday, August 14, 1pm-6pm

Partnering with the American Federation of Musicians Local 77-274, we are delighted to host a Red Cross blood drive in Riverside Hall. This drive is being led by Leon and Phaedra Jordan (Leon is a member of the Jazz Sanctuary, who plays for us regularly at Jazz & Joe), and the theme will be "Music Saves Lives." You can sign up to donate on our website, or at <https://www.redcrossblood.org/give.html/drive-results?zipSponsor=AFM>.

From Colonies to Country Organ Recital – Sunday, September 6, 3pm

Kick off the fall with us as we welcome young organist and organ scholar David Preston, who is doing a touring recital of American organ music. Mr. Preston is a graduate of the Yale Institute of Sacred Music and currently serves as Associate Director of Music at the Episcopal Cathedral of the Incarnation in Garden City, NY. A suggested donation of $15 will be collected at the door.

Political Empathy and Religious Freedom – Wednesday, September 9 at 5:00pm

Can empathy, an ability to stand in the other person's shoes, change how we perceive those who worship and vote differently than we do? Can religious differences be bridged to help us cross political divides? Hear the groundbreaking research of University of Pennsylvania political scientist Dr. Lia Howard and her students as they offer strategies for improving our political discourse and strengthening our democratic institutions. This program is part of the Religious Freedom: Then & Now initiative, sponsored by Interfaith Philadelphia. Admission is free, but attendees will be asked to register in advance; please check our website for a registration link in late August.

About Us

Gloria Dei (Old Swedes') is the oldest church in Pennsylvania, and one of the oldest continuously operating churches in the nation. While our congregation traces back to the arrival of Swedish colonists in 1638 (aboard the Kalmar Nyckel and the Fogel Grip, whose replicas hang from our ceiling), worship has been held on this site since 1677. Our church building was dedicated on June 2, 1700, and is the oldest surviving brick building in Pennsylvania. Stories about many of our early parishioners, and others buried in our graveyard, are available in our graveyard tour app (see the maps available just outside the main door).

Gloria Dei was founded as a Swedish Lutheran congregation, with many of the early ministers being sent by the Church of Sweden. However, after the American Revolution, the congregation called an Episcopal priest as an assisting minister. In 1845, the church was formally welcomed into the Episcopal Diocese of Pennsylvania, and it remains an Episcopal parish to this day. However, we still honor our Swedish heritage, especially with our annual Lucia Fest, held every December for more than 85 years. The church was also recognized as a National Historic Site in 1942, and is an affiliated National Park Site under Independence National Historical Park. The open green space and the walls surrounding the church were established by the National Park Service in the 1970s.

Today, the congregation remains vibrant and active. While we are blessed with a rich history and many cherished traditions – and we work to preserve these blessings for future generations – we are not bound by tradition. Instead, we actively and creatively work to welcome the wide variety of different communities that use our space, ranging from concerts and movies in the graveyard, to dog walkers on the grounds, to weddings and performances in the church. To learn more about our current programs, please pick up an upcoming events flyer, located on the table in the back of the church, or view the events section on our website.
