Meet the Tytoo Family

Dear Tytoo supporter: Please be introduced to Erma. Here is her story: My name is Erma Louise Ertrude. I was born in the village of Sousmatla. I came to Jesus during a time when I was very sick. A local pastor was called who came and prayed with me. I asked for forgiveness, was converted, baptised and I dedicated my life to Jesus.

I came to know about Tytoo in my seventh year of school. I didn't have any money to complete my schooling but the school associated with Tytoo took me in and helped me complete all my grades up to and including high school. I realized that there were no nurses in my area so I had a dream to become a nurse. One day I met a Canadian pastor at Tytoo and explained my dream to become a nurse. He promised to look for a sponsor for my university nurse's training. Now I had hope. Not many weeks after that Mr Webert from Tytoo advised me that a sponsor had been found! Now I have completed my three years at university and am currently studying for my Government exam. In the meantime, I am doing nursing things for the children at Tytoo.

Life has been difficult at times. My mother died in 2020, in 2023 bandits came to the area and killed many people and I lost every thing I had. It is hard at times to imagine a better tomorrow, but I am trusting God to provide.

The gang violence in Haiti continues. Murders, theft, rape and children forced to join gangs are frequent happenings. The promised UN police force has failed to have any significant impact so far. Continue to pray for Haiti. .
