Matthew 6:1-4

[1] “Beware of practicing your righteousness before other people in order to be seen by them, for then you will have no reward from your Father who is in heaven.

[2] “Thus, when you give to the needy, sound no trumpet before you, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may be praised by others. Truly, I say to you, they have received their reward. [3] But when you give to the needy, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, [4] so that your giving may be in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will reward you. (ESV)

Reflection Questions:

1. When you give — money, time, or help to someone in need — do you find yourself giving more freely when others are watching than when no one will ever know? What does that gap reveal about your heart’s true motive?
2. A. B. Bruce said, “Show when you are tempted to hide, and hide when you are tempted to show.” What might this look like practically in your own life this week? Who comes to mind when you think of “someone in need”? Think of a concrete way to help them this week.
3. Think about how much you have received from God. What kind of grace has He shown you in your life? How can you respond in gratitude this week?
