

ST. PETER

ANGLICAN CHURCH

The Reverend Stephanie Wood

Bishop: The Right Rev. Anna Greenwood-Lee

Diocese of Islands and Inlets

August 2, 2026

Tenth Sunday after Pentecost

With only five loaves and two fish, Jesus blesses, breaks, and distributes the food, resulting in everyone being satisfied and twelve baskets of leftovers being collected (Matthew 14:19-20).

The parish of St Peter Anglican Church is located on the unceded, traditional territory of the Ligwi'da'xw people: the We Wai Kai, Wei Wai Kum, and Kwiakah First Nations; the unceded traditional territory of the K'omoks First Nation and the unceded traditional territory of the Homalco First Nation. We seek a new relationship with the first peoples here; one based on honour and respect. We pray that we may live more deeply into the Calls to Action of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission.

The Prayers of the people

A Prayer for the team working to appoint a new incumbent.

Author: Kristina Melvin

O Christ,
Wisdom before all worlds,
Word through whom all things were made, walk beside those entrusted with discerning the shepherd for this beloved flock at St.Peter.

May the breath of Your Holy Spirit move as the gentle wind in, through and around the cedars, clearing away every fear, every ambition, and every voice but Yours.

May the ancient and resilient mountains stand as witnesses to Your steadfastness, reminding us that Your faithfulness endures through all the storms and shifts - from age to age.

May the rivers teach patience, flowing not by haste but by the quiet certainty of the course You have prepared.

May the forests whisper humility, where each tree grows according to the place You have given it, neither striving nor shrinking from its calling.

May the birds of the air lift songs of praise and hope above uncertainty and may the creatures of field and sea bear silent testimony that all creation rests in Your providence.

May the fire of Your love burn away pride, kindle courage, and illuminate the path hidden from our sight.

May the rich earth, from which You formed us and to which we shall return, grounding those entrusted to choose with wisdom, gentleness, and faithful listening.

As sun and moon keep the sacred rhythms You have ordained, may the hearts of those discerning be ordered by Your peace, not by urgency, not by appearances, but by the quiet voice of the Good Shepherd.

Grant them ears to hear Your call, eyes to recognize the priest whom You have already prepared, and hearts willing to follow wherever You lead.

Bless also the one whom You are calling. Prepare their soul, their family, their ministry, and their journey, even now, though they may not yet know where You are leading them.

May this congregation receive its next shepherd with joy, with grace, and with the hospitality of Christ, that together priest and people may proclaim the Gospel, care for the broken, feed the hungry, seek the lost, and reveal Your Kingdom in this place.

For the whole earth is Yours: the wind and the waters, the forests and fields, the stars and the sea, and every living thing sings of Your glory.

Father, through the Son, in the power of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

The Peace

Celebrant: The peace of Christ be with you.

All: And also with you.

The people greet one another in the name of Christ.

Offertory Hymn: CP 73 One Bread, One Body, One Lord of All

Prayer over the Gifts

God our sustainer,
accept all we offer you this day,
and feed us continually with that bread
which satisfies all hunger,
your Son our Saviour Jesus Christ.

Eucharistic Prayer 3

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant:

Blessed are you, gracious God,
creator of heaven and earth,
because in the mystery of the Word made flesh
you have caused a new light to shine in our hearts, to give knowledge of salvation
in the face of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.
Now with angels and archangels
and the whole company of heaven,
we lift our voices
to proclaim the glory of your name.

All: Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Celebrant:

We give thanks to you, Lord our God,
for the goodness and love
you have made known to us in creation;
in calling Israel to be your people;
in your Word spoken through the prophets;
and above all in the Word made flesh,
Jesus your Son.

For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
to be the Saviour and Redeemer of the world.
In him, you have delivered us from evil,
and made us worthy to stand before you.
In him, you have brought us
out of error into truth,
out of sin into righteousness,
out of death into life.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death,
a death he freely accepted,
our Lord Jesus Christ took bread;
and when he had given thanks to you,
he broke it, and gave it to his disciples,
and said, "Take, eat:
this is my body which is given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine;
and when he had given thanks,
he gave it to them,
and said, "Drink this, all of you:
this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many
for the forgiveness of sins.
Whenever you drink it,
do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, Father, according to his command,

All: we remember his death,
we proclaim his resurrection,
we await his coming in glory;

Celebrant:

and we offer our sacrifice
of praise and thanksgiving
to you, Lord of all;
presenting to you, from your creation,
this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God,
to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts,
that they may be the sacrament of the body of Christ and his blood of the new covenant.
Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice,
that we, made acceptable in him,
may be sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

In the fullness of time,
reconcile all things in Christ,
and make them new,
and bring us to that city of light
where you dwell with all your sons and daughters;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
the firstborn of all creation,
the head of the Church,
and the author of our salvation;

by whom, and with whom, and in whom,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
all honour and glory are yours, almighty Father,
now and for ever. Amen.

Celebrant: As our Saviour taught us, let us pray.

The Lord's Prayer

All: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,
now and forever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

Celebrant: "I am the bread which has come down from heaven," says the Lord.

All: Give us this bread for ever.

Celebrant: "I am the vine; you are the branches."

All: May we dwell in him, as he lives in us.

The Communion:

Celebrant: The gifts of God for the people of God.

All: Thanks be to God

Lamb of God:

Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world:

Have mercy on us, mercy on us, mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you pour your Holy Spirit on us:

Have mercy on us, mercy on us, mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world:

Grant us peace, grant us peace, grant us peace.

(Communion: Music team communicated after the singing of the Lamb of God. Congregation to follow after the music team have returned to their respective positions at the piano/altar.)

Prayer after Communion:

God of grace,

we have shared in the mystery of the body and blood of Christ.

May we who have tasted the bread of life
live with you for ever.

We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Glory to God:

Celebrant: Glory to God

All: whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine.
Glory to God from generation to generation,
in the Church and in Christ Jesus,
for ever and ever. Amen.
