ready to assemble school kits. We have been so generous in the past we are going to shoot for 200 kits. It's fantastic that this seems like a reasonable goal! Supplies needed are:

- 70 sheet notebooks (no loose-leaf paper)
- 30 cm ruler
- Pencil Sharpener
- Blunt Scissors
- UNSHARPENED #2 pencils
- Black or Blue ballpoint pens (no gel ink)
- Box of crayons 16 or 24 count
- 2 1/2" eraser

There will be bins at each site for drop off. Assembly date is Sunday, September 6th at Hollandale. Thanks for your consideration!

Hello Everyone,

As you might remember I attended the Rostered Ministers Gathering last month. This gathering happens every three years and it is where pastors, Bishops, deacons, chaplains, anyone who is ordained can come together for worship, learning and fellowship. It is a time where I can reconnect with friends and classmates from around the country and we can catch up what each other is doing in ministry. The best part is this is something that I get to do with my wife. I enjoyed my time there. Thank you for allowing me to do this as part of my continuing education.

This year's theme was "Woven Together" and to help us remember this they had a pastor from New York weaving on her loom on the side of the stage every time we came together in general session. I heard a lot of great speakers from one who gave us this great image of creation. He spoke of the "ruach" of God, the Hebrew word for spirit, breath, wind, hovering over the sea of chaos. When God spoke it wasn't a loud command, as I often envisage, but instead was a whisper, "Light", softly spoken with the follow up, "good." He said this softly into the mic. Imagine that whisper of God still echoing throughout creation. Reaching your ears. Telling you that you are good.

The pastor who was weaving showed us what was created during the gathering with all the different threads that we were invited to bring and contribute to this cloth. She left it with pieces of string hanging off of it as a reminder that it wasn't finished yet just like God is not finished with us yet. We were also reminded that despite the lies we tell ourselves, especially when we are depressed, mad at, or just don't feel good about ourselves, when we are rejected by our peers or neighbors, when we feel unwanted, that we are not mistakes. You are not a mistake. You are woven together with many perfect, unique parts into the one and only perfectly unique person that you are. One of a kind, uniquely created in the image of the One who calls you beloved.

Our Presiding Bishop, Bishop Curry, talked about God's grace and forgiveness. Giving us the example of a time when he attended a church camp and one of the crafts was to weave a potholder. You start out with this plastic loom and begin to weave the yarn between all the pegs around the edges. Inevitably at some point you mess up and end up with a knot or a hole and are not sure what to do with it. Then one of the counselors comes over and takes the time to patiently help you undo everything until you get to the spot where the mistake is and then helps you fix it so you can continue until your potholder is done. That is what grace looks like. That is how God's forgiveness works. God doesn't discard us just because we made a mistake but instead takes the time to patiently help us recover from that mistake and walks with us continually, patiently, extending us grace every time we mess up. (continued on the next page)

People of New Hope, we are woven together, through love, through grace, through faith, through worship and community. We are connected to each other and to the world through the love of God that is shown to us through Jesus. You each are perfect unique threads in the masterpiece that is God's creation. Enjoy the rest of your summer knowing that the love of God goes with you.

God's Peace,

Pastor Chris

The Annual Fall Bazaar and Auction is scheduled for Wednesday, September 23.
Stay tuned for details!

Great things are happening as I write this. We are getting ready for VBS and decorations are appearing. Posters are up, a train is being assembled, there are railcars and tracks in the sanctuary. The building is being transformed in front of my eyes. Exciting!! Julie Saether has done an amazing job leading this endeavor and it is fun to see her vision come alive. This doesn't happen without volunteers. There are people decorating, people teaching, leading music, helping with lunch, helping the students as they learn about God's love for them through different Bible stories. By the time you read this it will all be over. The kids will have gone home from an amazing and fun day. The decorations will have been taken down. But the lessons learned, the relationships formed, the connections made will continue.

All of this does not happen without you. Your offering, the support you give New Hope is what allows us to bring the Word of God to these children in such a fun way. Your offering goes far beyond what happens this year at VBS. The seeds that are planted will come to fruition in ways we cannot imagine. It all starts with you and the many ways in which you support New Hope. Thank you for everything you do to support the mission of New Hope.

God's Peace be with You,

Pastor Chris
