Dear Brethren,

I received a message early this morning from Missionary Alex Araya in Costa Rica, asking if I could come to Costa Rica and translate in the preaching services for a couple of visiting preachers from South Carolina, Pastor David Goforth of the Grace Baptist Church of West Colombia, SC, and his brother Mike, who pastors a church in Michigan. Bro. Alex commented that my presence there was not just for the matter of interpretation, but for the time of fellowship and talk of the ministry.

Pastor David was pastor of the Providence Baptist Church of Riverview, FL for 10 years before moving back up to Colombia to pastor the Grace Baptist church, where he had been the Youth Pastor for 15 years before becoming pastor of the Providence Baptist Church here in Riverview, FL which is our home church. During his time at Providence as pastor, he made four trips to Costa Rica: (1) With Paul Patterson and the Providence Youth Group, (2) With a group of Providence builders to construct 2 cabins for Bro. Alex's camp ministry, and (3) to preach at a Saturday graduation dinner and the Graduation services on Sunday in Canalete for Bro. Bismark Martinez. During the Sunday service, a special relief offering sent by the Providence Baptist Church was given to the affected families whose houses were lost due to the damage caused by Hurricane Otto in November of 2016, and (4) the last one in March of 2020 with Pastor Tony Perry, his wife Deborah, Nancy, and myself for special preaching services at the camp in Sacramento and the church in Coronado.

I checked the current airfares to fly from Tampa to San Jose, and the prices are between $800 and $1000. We are in no condition to pay for this trip. This would definitely have to be a MACEDONIAN CALL from the Lord, especially since it's just for three days and is quite costly. I told Bro. Alex that this was totally in God's hands if he wanted me there. We will leave it at that.

"As for God, his way is perfect."
