GRIEF SHARE

We are here to help you on your grief journey. Grief is a journey that shouldn't be traveled alone. You may feel like no one understands and be tempted to isolate, but as counselor David Bueno Martin says, "Healing happens in the context of finding others who can help you." A GriefShare group is a safe place to find support.

Our GriefShare group will meet weekly on Thursdays at 10am from August 20 - November 19. Click the link below to sign up.

LOVE WHERE YOU LIVE

An Example of the Church's Potential

John 13:34-35

“A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. By this everyone will know that you are My disciples, if you love one another.”

The greatest evidence that we belong to Jesus is not what we know, but how we love.
Wherever God has placed us, we are called to love people as Christ has loved us.

Love Is the Mark of a Disciple

Jesus gave a new command: Love as He has loved us.

Romans 5:8

“But God demonstrates His own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us.”

Just as the Early Church changed the world through love, our communities should be transformed as we love where we live.

Love Requires Presence

Luke 19:5

Jesus entered people's lives, noticed individuals, and met them where they were. “Zacchaeus, come down immediately. I must stay at your house today.”

Love expresses itself through action.

- Pray for opportunities to encourage others.
- Learn your neighbors' names. (Romans 12:13)
- Welcome new people.
- Show up during life's joys and hardships.
- Look for those who are lonely or overlooked. (Luke 10:37b)

1 John 4:19

We love because He first loved us.”

Love Where You Live

John 13:35

“By this everyone will know that you are My disciples, if you love one another.”
