SIMILARITIES IN THE ROBE OF AARON & THE ARMOR OF GOD

From Old Testament Priesthood to New Testament Spiritual Warfare

God has always provided specific clothing to protect His people and represent His authority. From the physical garments of the High Priest to the spiritual armor of every believer, God equips His people to stand in His presence and do His work.

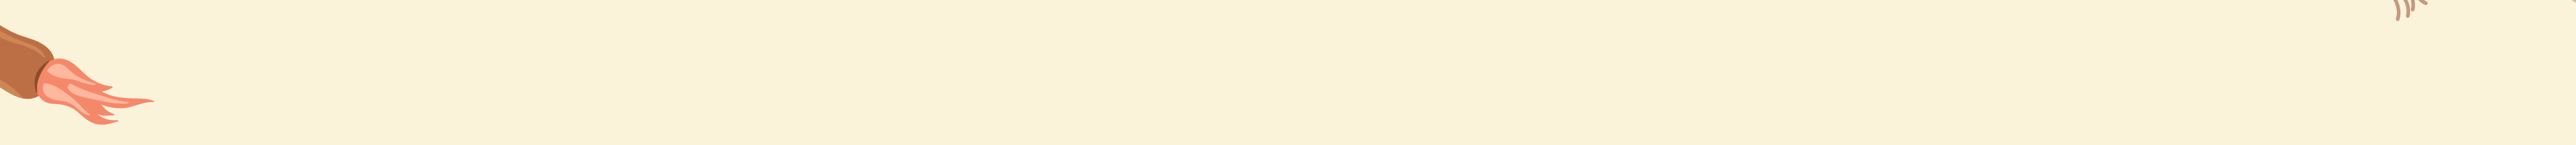

This study explores how these divine provisions – then and now – reveal God's faithfulness to His people.

Introduction

Introduction

The Robe of Aaron (Exodus 28)

Physical garments worn by the High Priest to enter God's physical presence in the Tabernacle.

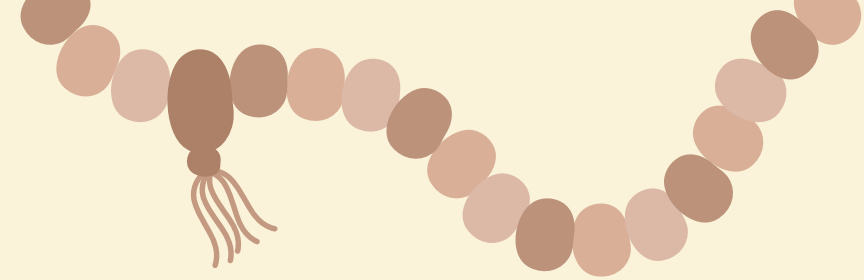

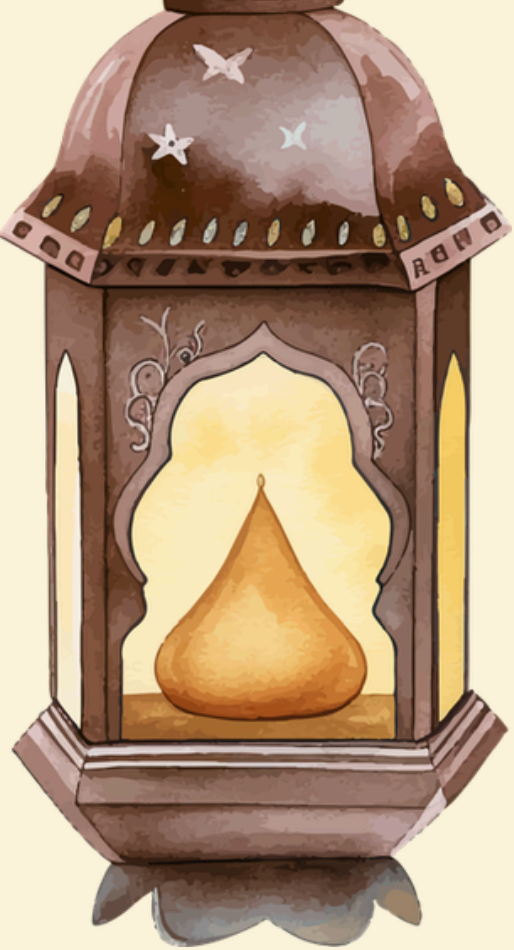

God provided specific clothing to represent His authority and protect His people in His holy presence.

The Armor of God (Ephesians 6:11-17)

Spiritual armor worn by every believer to stand firm against spiritual battles in daily life.

Key Point: Both show how God equips His people to stand in His presence and do His work.

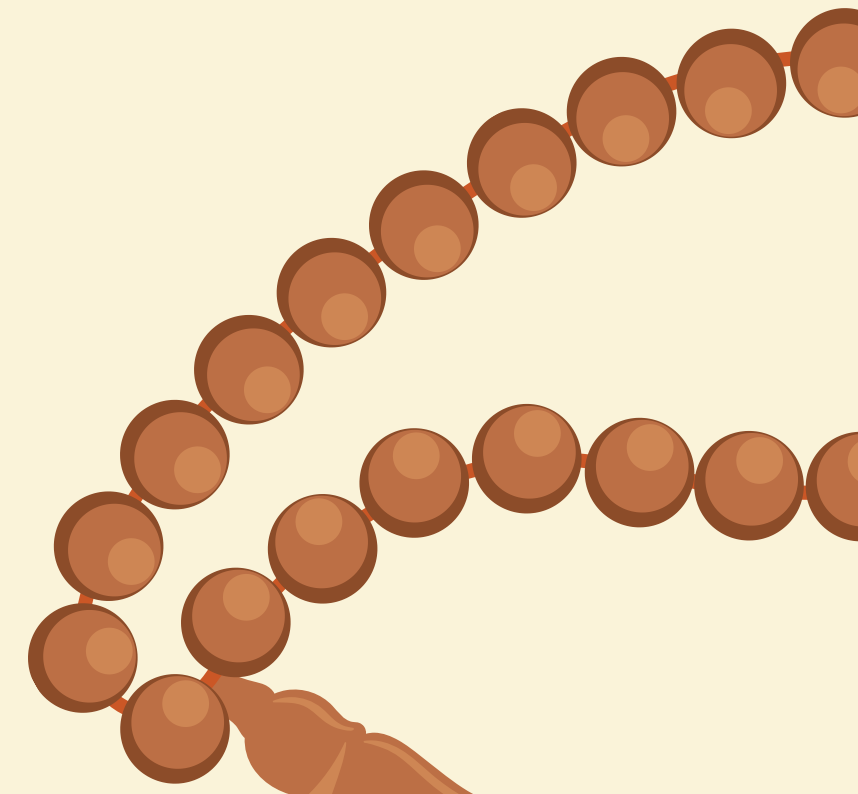

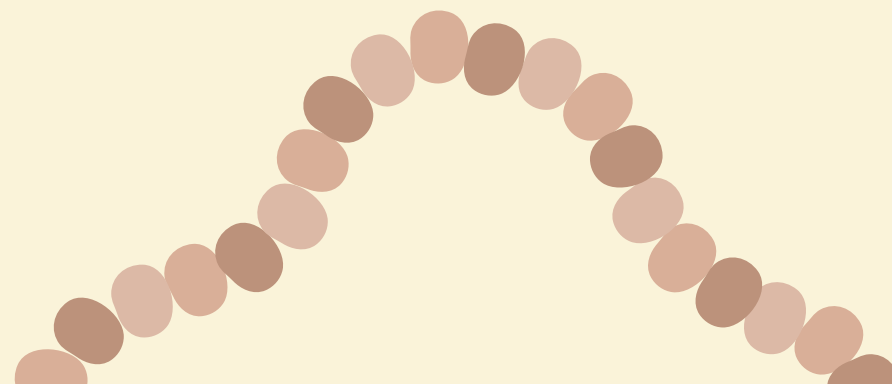

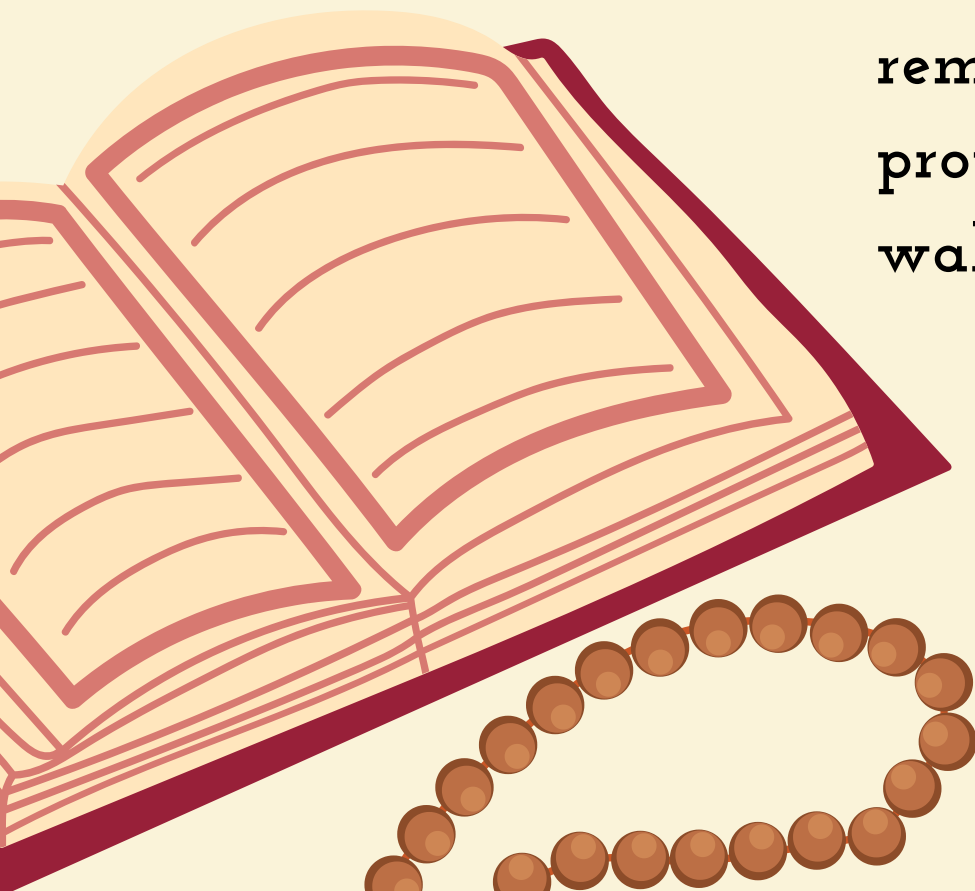

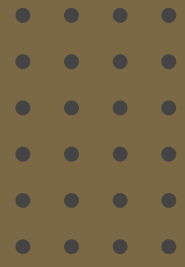

Conclusion

Key Point: Both the Robe of Aaron and the Armor of God show how God equips His people to stand in His presence and do His work. Whether physical or spiritual, God has always provided what His people need to serve Him faithfully and victoriously.

From the Tabernacle to the battlefield of daily life, God's provision remains constant. He clothes His people with purpose, authority, and protection – calling every believer to put on what He has given and walk boldly in His presence and power.

The Robe of Aaron

The Breastplate

Contained 12 gemstones engraved with the names of the 12 tribes of Israel. The high priest carried the people on his heart before God, representing intercession and identity.

The High Priest: Representation, Intercession, and Approaching a Holy God

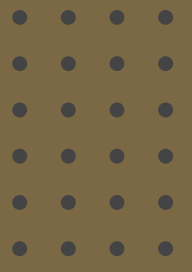

The Robe, Pomegranates & Bells

Worn with golden bells along the hem so the priest's movement could be heard in the Holy Place, symbolizing life, active ministry, and presence before God.

The Turban: "Holy to the Lord"

The golden plate on the turban marked the high priest as completely dedicated and set apart for God — consecrated in mind and purpose to serve the Lord alone.

The Robe of Aaron

Representation

The priest carried the 12 tribes of Israel on his heart, bearing the names of God's people before the Lord continually.

Intercession

The high priest served as mediator between the people and God, standing in the gap and pleading on behalf of all Israel.

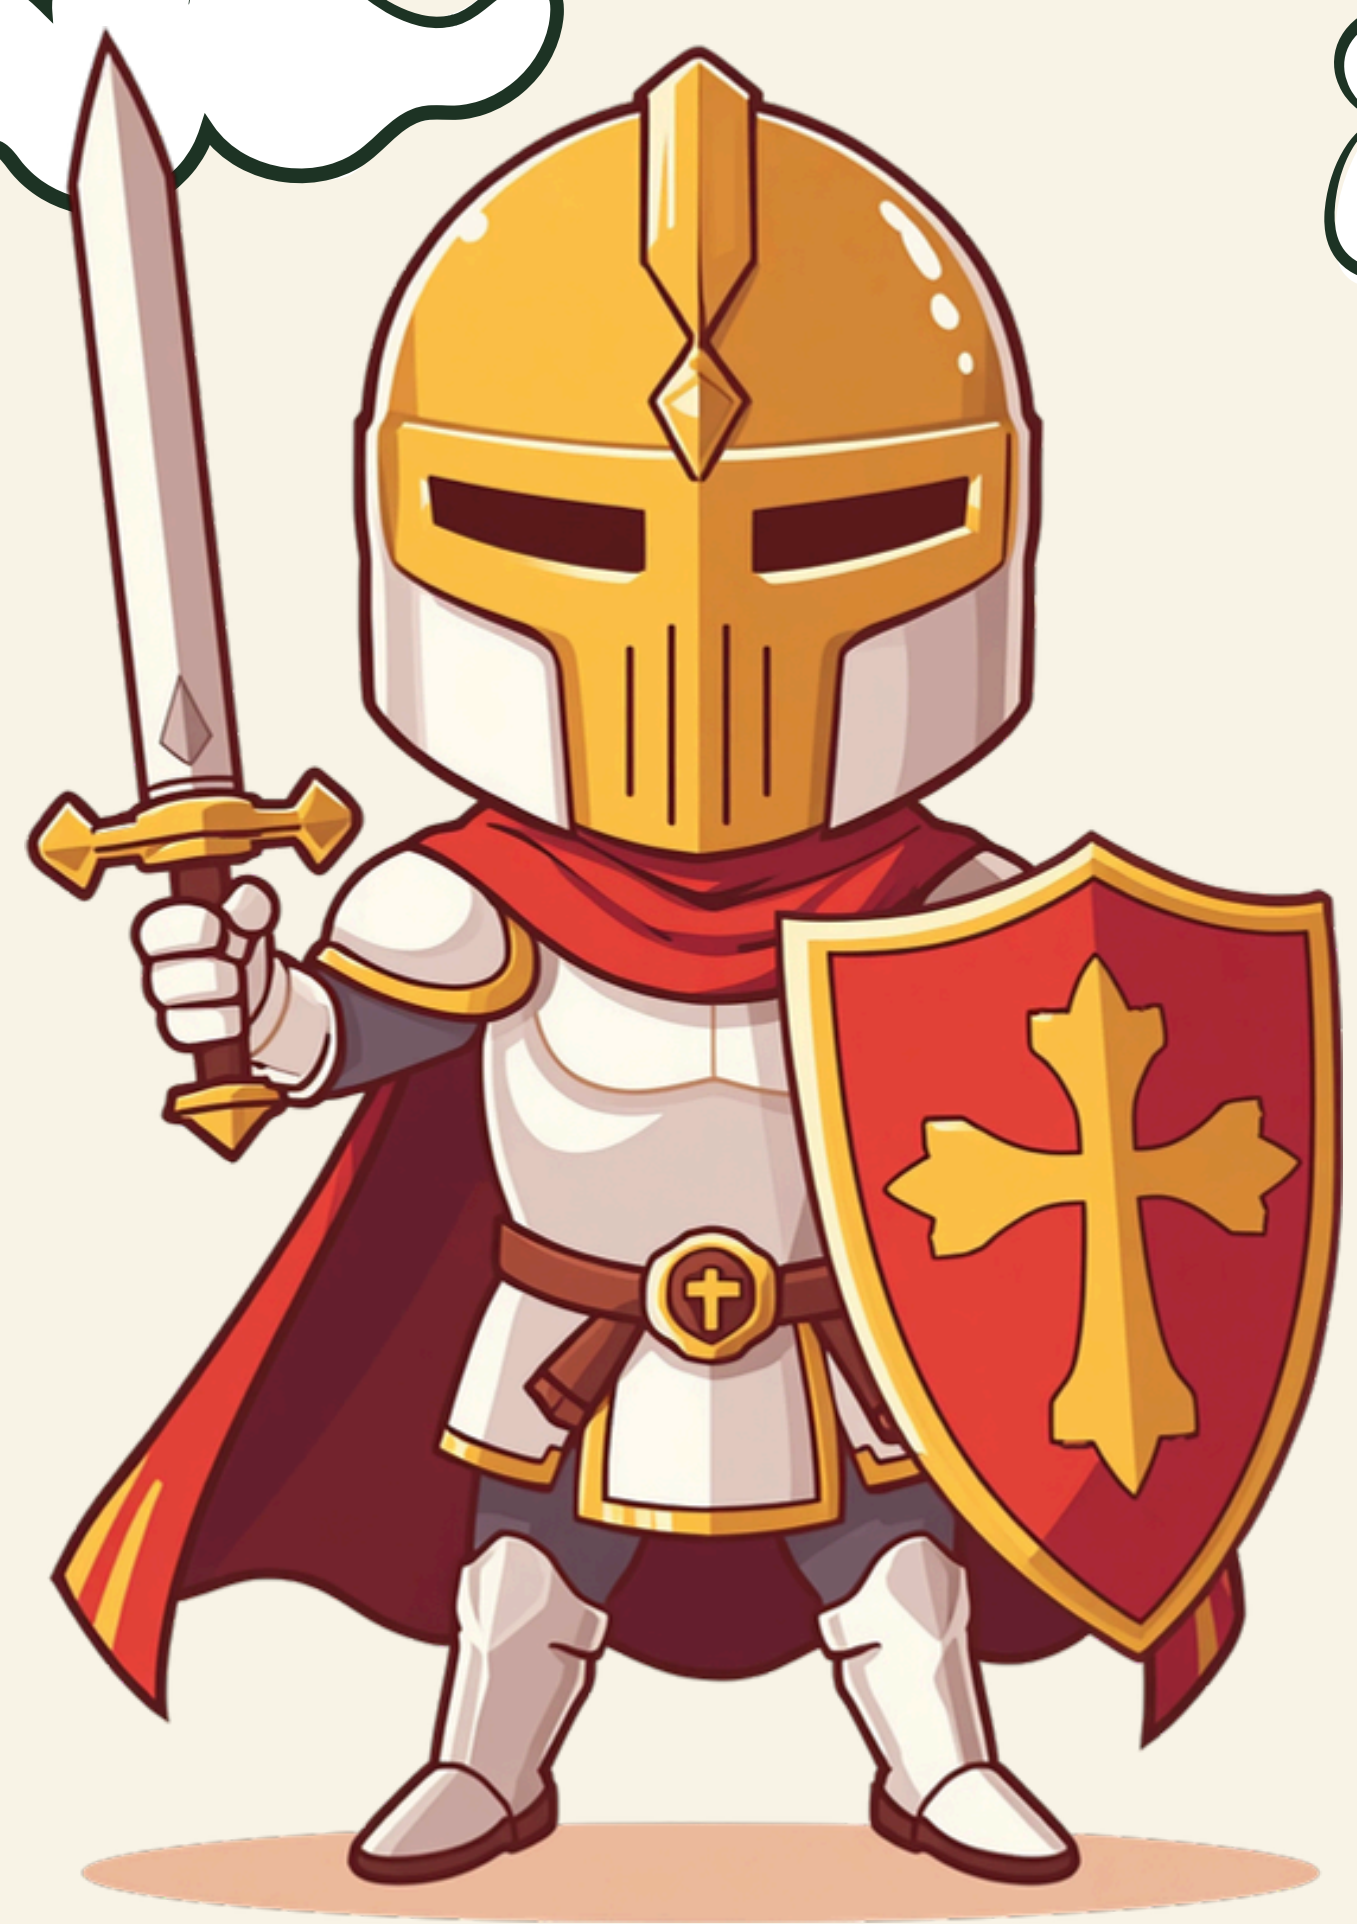

Approaching a Holy God

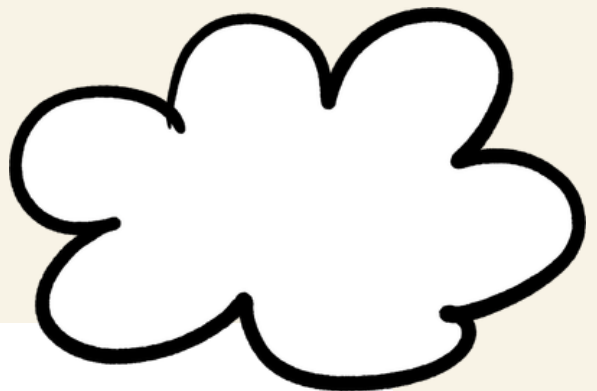

Every garment prepared the priest to enter God's presence—holy, set apart, and fully dedicated to sacred ministry.

The Armor of God (The Believer)

BELT OF TRUTH

The Belt of Truth secures our identity in Christ and guards our hearts and minds against deception. It is the foundation of the armor, holding everything together in God's truth.

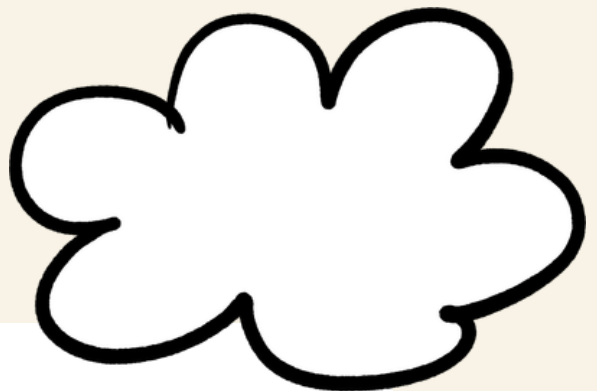

BREASTPLATE

The Breastplate of Righteousness protects our heart through Christ's righteousness. It shields us from accusations and moral compromise, reminding us of our standing before God.

SHOES OF PEACE

The Shoes of Peace give us stability and readiness to share the Gospel wherever we go. They ground us in the peace of God and prepare us to walk boldly in His calling.

The armor of God (The Believer)

TEACHING 01

Shield of Faith: Extinguishes all doubts and fiery darts from the enemy, protecting the believer through steadfast trust in God.

TEACHING 02

Helmet of Salvation: Protects the mind and guards our assurance in Christ, keeping our thoughts anchored in His saving grace.

TEACHING 03

Sword of the Spirit: The Word of God, our only offensive weapon, empowering believers to stand firm and proclaim truth.

The Armor of God

Helmet of Salvation: Protects the mind in Christ.

Breastplate of Righteousness: Protects our heart.

Belt of Truth: Guards against deception.

Shoes of Peace: Readiness to share the Gospel.

Shield of Faith: Extinguishes the enemy's darts.

Sword of the Spirit: The Word of God.

Dr. June's Additions

Garment of Praise: To ward off the enemy by our praise and worship! It's a warfare defense

Blood of Jesus: This is a weapon as well that deters the enemy.

Protection and Authority: Drawing on imagery from the Passover in the Hebrew Bible (where the blood of a lamb protected the Israelites), Christians view the blood of Jesus as a spiritual shield against harm and a source of victory over temptation

The Scriptural Foundation

Core Verses:

Revelation 1:6 and 1 Peter 2:9 declare believers a "royal priesthood."

Old Testament:

Separated kings (who ruled) and priests (who served in temples).

New Testament:

Jesus combined both roles into a single eternal identity.

The Modern Shift:

Not about political power, but spiritual authority and access.

HOW WE ARE KINGS TODAY

AUTHORITY OVER SIN:

We rule over our passions, thoughts, and habits through the Holy Spirit.

SPIRITUAL WARFARE:

We use the Armor of God to push back darkness and chaos.

STEWARDSHIP & DOMINION:

We cultivate, manage, and care for our families and workplaces.

KINGDOM AMBASSADORS

We make decisions with the confidence of royalty

HOW WE ARE PRIESTS TODAY

DIRECT ACCESS

SPIRITUAL SACRIFICES

INTERCESSION

RECONCILIATION

ANCIENT FUNCTION VS. MODERN PRACTICE

KING

ANCIENT

- King (Ancient): Governed a physical nation and fought physical enemies.

MODERN

- King (Modern): Governs the self, manages resources, and fights spiritual battles.

PRIEST

ANCIENT

- Priest (Ancient): Entered a physical temple to offer animal sacrifices for sin.

MODERN

- Priest (Modern): Enters God's presence freely, offering a life of worship.

Conclusion

- The Call to Action:
You are fully equipped.
Step out and walk in your identity.

- Final Thought:
Rule with love like a king;
serve with grace like a priest.

CONCLUSION & APPLICATION

JESUS FULFILLS BOTH:

Jesus is our Great High Priest (like Aaron) who wears us on His heart, and He is our Victor who secured our armor.

TAKEAWAY:

We do not fight to win; we fight from victory, clothed in the righteousness and protection God provides.

"Thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ."

CONCLUSION & APPLICATION

JESUS FULFILLS BOTH:

Jesus is our Great High Priest (like Aaron) who wears us on His heart, and He is our Victor who secured our armor.

TAKEAWAY:

We do not fight to win; we fight from victory, clothed in the righteousness and protection God provides.

Thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.
1 CORINTHIANS 15:57

HE WEARS US ON HIS HEART. HE ARMORS US FOR VICTORY.
WE ARE HIS.
