John 14:25-27

Peace for an Uncertain Future

SERIES: Never Alone

When the future is uncertain, we get troubled.

We don't know what's ahead. We don't know what we'll face.

John 14:25, 27

✓ OUR WORLD says peace comes from knowing what's ahead of you

Questions for Further Reflection & Discussion

Peace for an Uncertain Future | Never Alone

John 14:25-27 | August 9, 2026

1. When the future feels uncertain, what tends to trouble you most? The things you know or the things you don't know?
2. Read John 14:25-27 and review the sermon outline. What reflections do you have about it?
3. What are some ways, if any, that you have become information-saturated?
4. Jesus says, "Do not let your hearts be troubled." What do you think makes that difficult to live out when the future is uncertain?
5. Jesus promises that the Holy Spirit will teach us and remind us of what He has said. Have you experienced this? How?
6. Doug described the Holy Spirit as the Spirit in the GAP — helping us when we don't have the information we need. And the Spirit with a TAP — reminding us of Jesus' truth when we need it. Which of those do you find more meaningful right now? Why?
7. Can you think of a time when a teaching or promise of Jesus came to mind at just the right moment? What difference did it make?
8. What is one truth from Jesus that you need the Holy Spirit to tap you on the shoulder and remind you of this week?
