

Wake Up To A Miracle

Acts 12:1-5

Many of us have probably never seen a miracle, but Peter was about to witness one. He actually would be the recipient of one. He was in jail for the third time awaiting trial and almost certain death.

King Herod had arrested some who belonged to the church with the intent of persecuting them. He had James, the brother of John put to death, then they proceeded to capture Peter. He was arrested, put in prison and guarded by 16 soldiers - 4 squads. Two soldiers were chained to Peter and two stationed at the door to prevent his escape. Peter was allowed to live, but James was put to death.

When Peter was asleep the angel appeared and rescued him. The angel commanded him to get dressed, tie his sandals, and follow him.

When Peter realized that this was not a dream, the angel disappeared. When God plans your escape, it does not matter how many people are guarding you. When he does we must give all glory and honor to him.

The world we live in is full of craziness and we have to keep our hand in God's hand. Always magnify the Lord and never neglect to do so. When you come into God's house, have a clear mind so that you may be blessed.
