

The Canaanite woman pressed upon Jesus her needs and was heard. With expectant faith, let us place before God earnest petitions for ourselves and our world, saying:
Lord hear our prayer.

For our world in need of healing, in search of a saviour, yet far from Jesus, let us call out to the Lord. Lord hear our prayer.

For Todd our bishop, Rob, Tanya and Tianna our priests, and Tom and Stephanie our deacons. For the churches and their leaders, at times narrowed by institutional concerns and blind to differing manifestations of faith, let us call out to the Lord.
Lord hear our prayer.

For those who are troubled by demons of mind and body, for those who must watch others suffer, and especially for Beulah, Rob, Andrea, Heather, Hadley, Harold, Nikki, John, Peter, Leontine, Cedee- Anne, Paul, Norm, Shaun, Dianne, Bellen, Scott and Mary, let us call out to the Lord. Lord hear our prayer.

For those whose faith is impelling them beyond the limits of society and the constraints of culture, let us call out to the Lord. Lord hear our prayer.

For all of us here present, for those whose faith is known to God alone, and for those intentions we hold deep in our hearts, let us call out to the Lord.
Lord hear our prayer.

Infinite God, we have no claim to your mercy; yet it is your mercy we so desperately need. Turn you ear toward our supplications, and grant us your healing touch. We ask this with faith in the name of Jesus, who is the saviour of the world and one with you and the Holy Spirit, on God forever and ever. Amen.
