Power point

Hattie Henderson comes over to your house to tell you that she is glad she is not like the Apostle Peter. You ask her what does she mean by that? She says that the bible teaches that Peter was a cursing (cussing) sailor. She wonders how Jesus could have chosen him to lead the church with such a filthy mouth. If Peter can curse, she should be able to curse as well. How do you answer Hattie? She shows you some videos to prove her point.

Matthew 26:34-35, ESV

Jesus said to him, “Truly, I tell you, this very night, before the rooster crows, you will deny me three times.” Peter said to him, “Even if I must die with you, I will not deny you!” And all the disciples said the same.” (Matthew 26:34–35, ESV)

Put it in the proper context

Peter Denies Jesus

69 [g][h]Now Peter was sitting outside [i]in the courtyard. And a servant girl came up to him and said, “You also were with Jesus the Galilean.” 70 But he denied it before them all, saying, “I do not know what you mean.” 71 And when he went out to the entrance, another servant girl saw him, and she said to the bystanders, “This man was with Jesus [j]of Nazareth.” 72 And again he denied it with an oath: “I do not know the man.” 73 After a little while the bystanders came up and said to Peter, [k]“Certainly you too are one of them, for [i]your accent betrays you.” 74 Then he began to invoke a curse on himself and to swear, “I do not know the man.” And immediately the rooster crowed. 75 And Peter remembered the saying of Jesus, [l]“Before the rooster crows, you will [g]deny me three times.” And he went out and wept bitterly.

Put it in the proper context

Therefore, having put away falsehood, let each one of you speak the truth with his neighbor, for we are members one of another." (Ephesians 4:25, ESV)

There are six things that the Lord hates, seven that are an abomination to him: haughty eyes, a lying tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood, a heart that devises wicked plans, feet that make haste to run to evil, a false witness who breathes out lies, and one who sows discord among brothers." (Proverbs 6:16–19, ESV)

Now I ask, how will you answer Hattie Henderson? Hopefully, you will explain to her that Peter was not living up to an earlier oath that he would never deny knowing Jesus. He was falling into enormous sin because he was denying Christ on an oath and would be subject to the penalty of failing as a truthful witness. He was literally saying, "As God is my witness, I never knew the man."

REFLECTION

Always remember to never isolate scripture and to use the analytical methodology presented in this study series to properly divide the word of truth.
