

MAIN SCRIPTURE

Mark 10:42-45

“Jesus called them together and said, “You know that those who are regarded as rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their high officials exercise authority over them. Not so with you. Instead, whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant, and whoever wants to be first must be slave of all. For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.”

To _____ our neighbor is to _____ them, following the example of _____ who came not to _____ but to _____.

_____ is at the _____ of Jesus' teachings.

Jesus' Model of Servant Leadership

Mark 10:32-34

The _____ of a Christian is not to ask that something should be done for him but to ask his Master what he could do for him.

True _____, according to _____, is found in _____ others.

Jesus' model of _____ calls us to a life of _____ and _____.

Washing the Disciples' Feet

John 13:1-17

More than the right answers, Jesus wants _____ and _____.

"We have often noticed Peter's fault. Let us notice Peter's excellence. I admire his humility in thinking it too inferior an office for Christ to wash his feet. It is a most proper feeling. It seemed an overwhelming condescension of love that he could scarcely permit. Although he spoke rashly when he said, 'You will never wash my feet,' his motive was a good one. It was because he could not allow his Lord to stoop so low - to wash the feet of such a poor fisherman."

- Charles Spurgeon

_____ one another is the _____ of blessing.

In _____ their feet, Jesus _____ that no act of service is _____ us.

True _____ involves _____ and a willingness to _____ others in even the most _____ ways.

The act of _____ the disciples' feet teaches us that true service is grounded in _____ and _____.

Serving the Least of These

Matthew 25:31-46

When we _____ the hungry, the thirsty, the stranger, the naked, the sick, and the imprisoned, we are _____ Jesus.

Serving "the least of these" is a powerful way to _____ our love for _____ and our _____.

Jesus' life was a _____ to His call to _____ the least of these.