

Week 3: Faith & Works

Sermon Series: James: Faith & Works

Key Verses: James 1:2–12; 2 Timothy 3:12

Speaker: Dr. Justin Hardcastle

Big Idea: Faith without works is a dead faith, but living faith produces action that reflects Jesus.

According to James, faith that never moves us to action is not healthy faith. He is showing us what saving faith looks like when it is alive.

Real Faith Produces Real _____

- Read: James 2:14. James begins with two direct questions: “What good is it, my brothers, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can that faith save him?” He is not saying we are saved by our works.
- Read: Ephesians 2:8–9. We are saved by grace through faith. We are saved because of what Jesus has done.
- Read: Ephesians 2:10. We are not saved by works, but we are saved for good works. A living faith produces visible fruit.
- Read: Matthew 7:16–20. Jesus said you will recognize them by their fruits.

Empty Words Are Not The Same As Obedient _____

- Read: James 2:15–17. He says imagine a brother or sister is poorly clothed and lacking daily food. And someone says, “Go in peace, be warmed and filled,” but does nothing to help.
- Faith is tested by how we respond to people in need.

- Faith is tested by how we respond to people in need.

- Living faith notices people. Living faith prays, but it also helps. Living faith encourages, but it also acts. Living faith does not say, “I hope someone does something.” Living faith asks, “Lord, how can You use me?”
- James says faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead.

Belief Alone Is Not The Same As _____

- Read: James 2:18–19. Even demons believe certain true things about God.
- We need sound doctrine, but if our belief never becomes obedience, something is missing.

Faith And Works Move _____

- Read: James 2:20–24.
- Abraham’s faith was also revealed through obedience, and was active along with his works. One without the other is incomplete. A tree does not produce fruit to become alive. A tree produces fruit because it is alive.

Living Faith Makes A _____

- Read: James 2:26. James is telling us a body without breath has no life. But the good news is this: through Jesus, your faith can be alive.
