SENIOR MINISTER CANDIDATE INTERVIEWS

Michael Moore and his family are with us today as part of the interview process for our Senior Minister position. He will be teaching the Bible class hour and preaching during our worship service.

There will be a survey released on Sunday afternoon after each candidate is interviewed. The survey will be sent out via Caremail and will be open through Thursday morning. Please make sure to take time to communicate your feedback to the elders and search committee. Please keep both candidates in your prayers as we continue this process.

Michael Moore has served in ministry leadership for more than 15 years, including roles as Senior Minister at Kennedy Heights Church of Christ in Cincinnati and Midtown Church of Christ in Racine. His ministry reflects a strong commitment to biblical preaching and teaching, discipleship, pastoral care, and evangelism. He currently works in nonprofit and church consulting ministries and is also the owner and online coaching instructor for The Scholar Online Bible Institute. Michael holds degrees in religious studies and nonprofit leadership and is a doctoral candidate in public policy and administration. He and his wife, Angel, have two daughters, Natalie and Abigail.
