TODAY'S TOPIC:
PSALM 19

Read Psalm 19:1-4.

Psalm 19 begins with a declaration of how all of nature worships the Lord (and we should, too!).

Where do we see God in the world around us? Draw pictures of or write down some of your favorite things in nature in the space below:

We can see God everywhere! His power is evidenced by His work in all the universe. When we look up at a night sky, how can we not see that God is an intelligent master of things? And if the sky is proclaiming His work, we should be, too!

When we think about all of this, it is only fitting that we praise and glorify God's name. We can do this with our words, prayers, and the ways we live our lives, obeying His rules and trusting in Him for guidance.
