The Keeper of your Soul

By Michael Orr

The journey you have taken,
From dawn until today,
Has brought you many places,
Along the rugged way.

But in this grand adventure,
Towards your final goal,
Your path has been made clearer,
By the keeper of your soul.

No wandering is random,
No path a waste of time,
For there's teaching in the moments,
And there's rhythm in each rhyme.

Though pieces seem disjointed,
The parts will make the whole,
When all is found and fitted,
By the keeper of your soul.

In days of wit and wonder,
In days of dark and grim,
No step can name the story,
Though the circumstance may dim.

For the chapters may be hidden,
And the writing takes its toll,
But the ending has been written,
By the keeper of your soul.

Rejoice, my friend, and listen,
For the words of life still speak,
Every blessing found in glory,
Can be found in all you seek.

May your heart be strong and lifted,
By the One whom you extol,
As your Alpha and Omega,
And the keeper of your soul.
