

Senior Director, Worship & Community

You're someone who desires to lead with purpose, care deeply for people, and create meaningful worship environments where individuals can encounter God?

In this role, you will shape both corporate worship and community care, helping build a Christ-centered, compassionate, and engaged church body, aligned with the mission and beliefs of Sturgeon Valley Baptist Church (SVBC).

At SVBC, we value biblical truth, authentic community, and a growing relationship with Jesus Christ. You'll play a key role in advancing this vision by cultivating worship that honors God and fostering a culture where people feel seen, supported, and spiritually encouraged.

Your impact

You will lead worship and community care ministries with intentionality, ensuring alignment with SVBC's mission, values, and theological convictions. You'll work closely with pastoral leadership and volunteers to create environments where people can grow in faith, serve with humility, and experience genuine connection.

Your role

- Lead and plan Christ-centered corporate worship gatherings aligned with biblical teaching and church vision
- Develop, mentor, and support worship leaders, musicians, and technical volunteers while fostering unity, humility, and excellence
- Provide leadership in congregational care by developing compassionate support systems for individuals and families
- Guide and equip a volunteer care team to provide visitation, encouragement, and presence during key life moments

What you bring

You bring both leadership strength and a servant heart. You are relational, organized, and spiritually grounded, with a desire to serve others and help them grow.

- Show a mature and active Christian faith with a commitment to Jesus Christ
- Possess experience in worship leadership, team development, and congregational care

Your environment

You'll be part of a collaborative ministry team that values unity, prayer, and shared purpose. This role includes regular Sunday leadership, midweek rehearsals, and increased involvement during key seasons such as Christmas and Easter.

Why this role matters

If you are passionate about building meaningful worship experiences, developing people, and caring for others in a Christ-centered community, this role offers the opportunity to make a lasting impact.

Ready to serve

If this aligns with your calling and strengths, we would love to hear from you. Bring your heart for worship, your care for people, and your desire to serve into a role where your leadership can truly make a difference.
