

Acts: Ordinary People. Extraordinary God.

Paul (Acts 9)

Big Idea: God takes ordinary people with ordinary skills in ordinary places and in ordinary relationships and uses them for extraordinary purposes.

1) God can use what you already have

- Acts 22:3
- Esther 4:14

Consider this: What has God already placed in your hands that perhaps is to be used in your calling?

2) God can use where you already are

- Acts 18:1-4

Consider this: Where has God already placed you and how can you live out Kingdom values and principles?

3) God can use where you are willing to go

- September 13, 2026 – Car Free Day
- October 3, 2026 – Main Street Pumpkin Patch
- October 17, 2026 – Sharing Hope in Crisis
- February 12, 2027 – Night to Shine
- July or August 2027 – Costa Rica missions trip
- Philippians 4:10-12

Consider this: Where might God be calling you to and what He might want you to be doing?

Reflection Questions

1. What has God already given you—your skills, education, experiences, relationships, or personality—that He could use for His purposes?
2. Where has God already placed you—your workplace, school, family, neighbourhood, or friendships—and what could it look like to represent Jesus there?
3. Where might God be asking you to go or step outside your comfort zone, and what might be holding you back?
