ENCOURAGEMENT CENTER

2026 Theme-Faith in Action August- Embracing God 's Grace

IF YOU KNOW OF SOMEONE NEEDING ENCOURAGEMENT OR IF YOU NEED ENCOURAGEMENT,, PLEASE FEEL FREE TO MAKE USE OF THE ITEMS PROVIDED

Through Him we have also obtained access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in hope of the glory of God.
Romans 5:2

Struggling? Strength Available

There are times when life feels heavier than we can carry. We become tired physically, discouraged emotionally, or weak spiritually. Sometimes the struggle comes from circumstances beyond our control. At other times, it comes from our own mistakes, disappointments, or failures. Whatever the cause, every one of us will eventually reach a point where our own strength is not enough.

The good news is that God never intended for us to face life's struggles in our own strength. Isaiah reminds us, "He gives power to the faint, and to him who has no might he increases strength" (Isaiah 40:29). Notice that God doesn't merely give strength to those who already feel strong. He gives power to the faint and increases strength for those who recognize that they have no might.

Paul learned the same lesson. After pleading with God concerning his own struggle, he was told, "My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness." Paul responded, "For when I am weak, then I am strong" (2 Corinthians 12:9-10).

Our weakness does not disqualify us from serving God. Our weakness can become the place where God's strength is most clearly demonstrated. Perhaps you are struggling today. Don't be ashamed to admit it. Don't believe that you have to pretend everything is fine. And don't make the mistake of trying to carry everything by yourself.

Strength is available when we turn to God in prayer. It is available when we immerse ourselves in His Word. It is available when we lean upon faithful brothers and sisters who will encourage and pray with us. It is available when we trust God's promises even when we cannot see the way forward.

Isaiah goes on to say that those who wait for the Lord "shall renew their strength" (Isaiah 40:31). The promise isn't that Christians will never become tired or struggle. The promise is that we do not have to remain defeated by our struggles.

So, if you are struggling, don't give up. If you're weary, keep walking.

If you are discouraged, keep praying. If you've fallen, get back up. If you feel weak, remember where true strength comes from. The God who created the heavens and the earth is not exhausted by our needs. He is not overwhelmed by our problems. He is not frustrated by our weakness. He is the God who gives power to the faint and increases strength to those who have no might. So you may be struggling, but you are not without strength. God's strength is available.

If you need a prayer request added, updated or removed, please use the back of the welcome card and place the card in the collection plate.
