WELCOME

Welcome to Clearview United Methodist Church. Every week, we look forward to this time to gather as a community. We are glad YOU are here today with us!

You can use this worship guide to help lead through worship and throughout the week. We truly hope you enjoy your time here this morning and hope you return soon.

Some logistics you may find helpful:

- Worship runs about an hour and fifteen minutes, sometimes a bit shorter & sometimes a bit longer.
- Grab a nametag from the table in the East Wing. If you are a guest, our Hospitality Team will happily make one for you.
- Childcare is available for non-school-aged children (infants through 4 years) in Room #10. Children in Grades K through 5 are invited to worship until after the Children's Moment, then go to Sunday School in Room #11.
 - Help us create the best learning environment we can by leaving toys at home. Snacks for younger children are ok but should not be brought for elementary-aged children.
 - Please encourage your child(ren) to use the restroom before church starts.
- Busy bags are available for children (or adults) who would like to keep their hands busy during the worship service.
- A restroom is in the Care & Share Room to the right of the front of the Sanctuary. Additional restrooms are outside in the courtyard.
- Prayer Cards are available in the pew in front of you and at all entrances. Please place your prayer card in the offering plate or a prayer box. It is our joy and privilege to be praying with and for you.
- We have several ways you can give financially to support Clearview's mission.
 1. Place cash/check in the offering plate/boxes or mail to the church.
 2. Text any amount to (727) 513-5557.
 3. Visit clearviewumc.org/give.
 4. Use your bank's bill payer system.

Clearview Leadership Team - Our next CLT meeting will be Tuesday, Sep 1, at 6:30 pm in the Care & Share room. Board members, please mark your calendars and plan to attend. Please keep our church and its leaders in prayer as we seek God's guidance and work together for the future of our ministry.

Church-wide 🍁 Pumpkin Patch 🍁 Meeting TODAY - Please join us in the Fellowship Hall following worship this morning for the church-wide Pumpkin Patch meeting. You'll hear about all the fun stuff your planning team has been working on, and we'd like to hear your thoughts/ideas. Followed by Q&A. But wait! There's more - a light lunch is provided. See you after church! ~Jill, Cindi & Judy, Patch Coordinators

Inviting Can Be Simple! Inviting someone to church doesn't have to feel awkward. Simply say, "Would you like to come with me?" Invite a friend to worship, dinner, a GROW Group, or another church event, and offer to meet them or save them a seat.

Here are a few more ideas:

- "I really enjoy my church. Would you like to come with me Sunday? I'll save you a seat."
- "Our church has a Community Dinner on the fourth Sunday. Want to come eat with me?"
- "I'm doing this group at church that's been really interesting. You'd be welcome to come with me."
- "My church is doing something this weekend that I think you'd really enjoy. Want to go together?"
- "Have you found a church yet? You're always welcome to come with me."
- "Our church has been a really supportive community for me. If you ever want to come, I'd be glad to go with you."
- "We've got a really welcoming group of people at our church. I think you'd fit right in."
- "What are you doing Sunday morning? Come to church with me, and we can grab lunch afterward."
- "I know church may or may not be your thing, but you're always welcome to come with me sometime."

Calling all crafters! It's time to start making your crafts to sell (proceeds will benefit the church) at the "Homemade from the Heart" sale in the Patch on Saturday, Oct 24, 11 am - 3 pm. There are a few "strings attached" for the crafters. Each item you make must be clearly marked with the price and your first name; any unsold items will be returned to the creator; and you must volunteer for at least one shift at the crafts for sale table. Thanks & happy crafting! Questions? Contact Jill, Cindy, or Judy.

THIS WEEK'S "AT HOME" DEVOTIONAL

What Happens When Jesus Becomes Your Lord: Romans 6:6–11

GATHERING

Light a candle to remind yourselves that Christ is making us new and leading us from old patterns into a life shaped by God’s love.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Lord Jesus Christ, thank you for calling us your beloved children and inviting us into new life. Give us the courage to see our past honestly, the wisdom to understand who we are today, and the hope for the people you are forming us to become. Help us say no to habits that harm and yes to your way of love. By your Spirit, make our inner lives and outward actions more like yours. Amen.

CARING CONVERSATION - Take a few moments to check in with one another.

Highs & Lows

- What is one thing that brought you joy this week?
- Where have you noticed growth or positive change in your life?

THINKING ABOUT THE UPCOMING WEEK’S SCRIPTURE

Consider yourselves dead to sin but alive for God in Christ Jesus. — Romans 6:11

Jesus loves us as we are, but his love does not leave us unchanged. Following him means allowing old patterns to die so that a new life of freedom, joy, truth, and love can grow within us.

- What part of your old way of life might Jesus be asking you to release?
- Why is honest self-examination difficult—and how can love make it safer?
- Is your life balanced between doing and simply being with God and others?
- Who do you hope to become as Christ continues to shape your life?

DAILY BIBLE READINGS - As you read this week, ask: How does Christ lead us from our old life into new life?

DAY	READING	THEME
Sunday	1 John 4:7–18	Loved without Fear
Monday	Mark 8:34–37	Say No to the Old Life
Tuesday	Psalms 139:1–18, 23–24	See Yourself Honestly
Wednesday	Deuteronomy 25:13–16	One Honest Measure
Thursday	Matthew 12:33–37	The Heart Shapes the Fruit
Friday	2 Corinthians 5:14–21	A New Creation in Christ
Saturday	Philippians 3:10–14	Press toward What Lies Ahead
Sunday	Romans 6:6–11	Alive to God in Christ

If your household includes children, feel free to use a children’s Bible or summarize the readings in simple language.

DEVOTIONAL

You are one of God’s favorite children—and so is everyone around you. That belovedness is not a reason for pride; it is the secure foundation from which transformation begins. Because Christ holds us in love, we can face the truth about ourselves without being trapped in shame.

Jesus says that those who follow him must say no to themselves, take up their cross, and follow. Paul describes this as the death of our old self so that we may become alive to God. Some habits, attitudes, and priorities must die: anger that wounds, contempt for others, dishonesty, selfishness, the misuse of power, and our constant need to control.

This change begins by looking honestly at the past. We often use one measure for ourselves and another for everyone else, excusing our behavior while judging theirs. A fearless moral inventory helps us see what we have done, listen to those we have affected, and invite Christ's healing into places we once defended or ignored.

Transformation also asks us to notice who we are now. Jesus shapes both our being and our doing. He cultivates patience within us so that kindness can flow from us. He quiets anxiety so that courage can grow. What fills the heart eventually becomes visible in our words and actions.

Christ does not erase the gifts, personality, or holy 'weirdness' that make you uniquely you. He heals what harms and strengthens what brings good to others. The Spirit works through your gifts so that your life can contribute something beautiful to the world.

Finally, we look toward the future. Like Paul, we have not already reached the goal, but we press on. When Jesus becomes our Lord, the past can be healed, the present becomes intentional, and the future opens with hope. We become distinct without becoming superior—people alive in Christ who seek the joy and flourishing of others.

PRAY TOGETHER

Invite each person to name one old habit to release and one Christlike quality they hope will grow. Then pray together:

Loving Jesus, thank you for knowing us completely and loving us still. Give us courage to face the past without excuses or shame. Show us what needs to die, heal what has been wounded, and form your love within us. Help us become patient, truthful, courageous, and compassionate. Lead us toward the future you desire for us, alive to God and ready to bless others. Amen.

MEALTIME PRAYER

Lord Jesus, thank you for this food and for everyone gathered here. Nourish us with your love, free us from what harms, and help us grow into the people you created us to be. Amen.

SERVICE CHALLENGE - This is one way we share God's love with the world.

Set aside fifteen quiet minutes this week for a prayerful inventory. Ask: What from my past needs Christ's healing? What is shaping my heart today? Who is Jesus calling me to become? Write one honest answer and take one small, concrete step toward new life.

CLOSING & BLESSING

Extinguish your candle as a reminder that the old life does not have the final word; in Christ, we are alive to God and still being made new.

With permission, make the sign of the cross on one another's hands or foreheads and say: You are God's beloved child. Let the old life go, come alive in Christ, and press on toward who God is calling you to become.
