Postlude “Prelude for a Joyful Occasion” Linda Hanson
by Edith Lange

The United Methodist Church has an open communion table. You don't have to be a member of this church, a Methodist, or a member of any church to share communion. If you want to share, you are welcome. Children are welcome to share communion.

To take communion, at the direction of the ushers move to the center aisle, come to the front of the church where Paul and Karen will serve communion, then return to your seat by the side aisles. Communion is grape juice and bread, with gluten free bread available (just ask when you come).

If you do not wish to share in communion, feel free to remain in your seat. If you are unable to come to the front, please tell the ushers and they will tell Karen and Paul. We will bring it to you.
