What's Your Price?

Sometime around thirty years ago some drug dealers went to the captain of an oil tanker that regularly made trips from South America to Los Angeles. They offered him $10,000 if he would bring in a load of cocaine. He refused.

They came back another day and said, "We'll give you $50,000 in cash for one load." Again he refused.

Finally they came again and offered $150,000. This time he said that he would think about it, instead he called the FBI. They put together a sting operation and caught the drug runners. The FBI was able to seize the shipment of drugs, $500,000 in cash, and a list of buyers in the LA area. It was after the arrests that one of the federal agents asked, "Why did you wait until they offered $150,000 before you called us?" The ship captain replied, "They were getting pretty close to my price, and I was scared they might reach it."

We all have a price. What's our price for giving up our belief in God? Our hope in Jesus Christ? Or even our faith?
