Luke 24:13-35

Luke 24:13–35

[13] That very day two of them were going to a village named Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem, [14] and they were talking with each other about all these things that had happened. [15] While they were talking and discussing together, Jesus himself drew near and went with them. [16] But their eyes were kept from recognizing him.

[27] And beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, he interpreted to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning himself. [28] So they drew near to the village to which they were going. He acted as if he were going farther, [29] but they urged him strongly, saying, "Stay with us, for it is toward evening and the day is now far spent." So he went in to stay with them. [30] When he was at table with them, he took the bread and blessed and broke it and gave it to them. [31] And their eyes were opened, and they recognized him. And he vanished from their sight. [32] They said to each other, "Did not our hearts burn within us while he talked to us on the road, while he opened to us the Scriptures?" [33] And they rose that same hour and returned to Jerusalem. And they found the eleven and those who were with them gathered together, [34] saying, "The Lord has risen indeed, and has appeared to Simon!" [35] Then they told what had happened on the road, and how he was known to them in the breaking of the bread. (ESV)

Reflection Questions:

1. How much do you want to grow in the knowledge of Jesus right now? Ask God to kindle your thirst to know Him more and for His help.
2. When did my heart last "burn" while reading Scripture, and what made that moment different from the times it didn't?
3. Who is one person I could start sharing what God is teaching me with this week?

Welcome to the Table: Recognizing the Risen Lord

1. We grow in the knowledge of Jesus through God's _____

2. We grow in the knowledge of Jesus through God's _____

3. We grow in the knowledge of Jesus through God's _____

You can know every fact about Jesus and still miss Him until God opens your eyes through His revelation, His words, and His people."
