

“Two Witnesses”

Lesson 3 Outline

Rev. 11:1-4

6 September 2026

John was directed to measure the temple, and this represented God's _____.

The Scriptures conclusively tell us that there will be a tribulation temple which will be abominated at the midpoint of the Tribulation.

This was the _____ temple.

Most Jews today are _____.

1

The reinstitution of temple worship is going to be a component in God's redeeming the people of Israel.

God is measuring out the temple, because He has plans for it, and those plans have to do with God's purpose in the redemption of Israel.

There will be a day when Jerusalem will be known as Jehovah-Shammah which means “the Lord is here.”

In the midst of the “week” the temple is going to be desecrated and abominated, but their hearts will still be opened. And then will come along these two witnesses who preach for – twelve hundred and sixty days, that's three-and-a-half years.

When God directs John not to measure the court He indicates He has no obligation by promise to redeem

_____.

This clearly gives me the idea that the church is not present here.

This is a time of return to the old dispensation where the Jews are back to being identified as a constituted covenant people of privilege, and the Gentiles are on the _____ means there is a distinction between the church and Israel, and that someday in the future God is going to complete His promise to Israel.

_____.

2

The “times of the Gentiles” is the time when the Gentiles dominate the city of Jerusalem, and that is not going to end until the return of Jesus Christ.

The Gentile devastation of the Holy City Jerusalem is the same length as the reign of Antichrist. And it’s the same as the time of the _____.

This is the time when the woman [Israel] will flee into the wilderness.

Other scriptures cited in order of citation: Dan. 9, 12; Matt. 24:15; 2 Thess. 2:4; Ezek. 40-48; Rom. 11; Rev. 13:14-15; Zech. 12:10-12, 13:1, 8-9, Zech. 14, Zech. 2:1-5; Acts 21:28; Col. 3:11; Eph. 2:14-16; Luke 21:24; Dan. 8:9-14; Rev. 13:5, 12:6