WEEK 6 As In Heaven

By: Nonda Houston
(Rescued)

Psalm 18:16-17
*He reached down
from heaven and
rescued me; hHe
drew me out of deep waters. He rescued me from
my powerful enemies..”*

One summer day when I was seventeen years old, my friend and I went to the beach. I love laying out on the warm sand, listening to the crashing waves, and swimming in the ocean. While cooling off in the water, the intensity of the waves increased. My friend knew to go beyond the waves, but in my panic, I tried to swim to shore. Wave after wave crashed down. I was caught in the strong pull of the undertow and couldn't get out. The lifeguard rescued a few of us that day. There's a way out from the pull of the current, but you must know what to do.

Just as I needed rescuing from the ocean that day, I needed rescuing from my sin—I—we—cannot save ourselves. And daily I need rescuing from the strategies of the enemy. This is what Jesus revealed in this portion in the Lord's Prayer: “Matthew 6:13 “But rescue us from the evil one.” Jesus rescued me!

Rescued from sin—We were held captive by the enemy and sin's grip. Jesus paid our ransom, ensuring our salvation, freedom, and redemption of all things. Colossians 1:13-14 For he has rescued us from the kingdom of darkness and transferred us into the Kingdom of his dear Son, who purchased our freedom and forgave our sins.

Rescued from the grip of the enemy. The Lord says, I will rescue those who love me. I will protect those who trust in my name. When they call on me, I will answer; I will be with them in trouble. I will rescue and honor them. I will reward them with a long life and give them my salvation (Psalm 91:14-16).

Rescued from straying—Jesus is our Good Shepherd who rescues us when we wander or drift away. We belong to Him, and He will gladly leave the flock to find His missing lamb. Matthew 18:12 If a man has a hundred sheep and one of them wanders away, what will he do? Won't he leave the ninety-nine others on the hills and go out to search for the one that is lost?
