Celebrating Bob Parson's Service and Leadership

We would like to thank Bob Parsons for his time serving as a board member for Hope in the Mountains. His leadership has been extremely valuable to the vision of our programming and administrative level decisions. He has served as a liaison to our Williamsburg network of churches and friends.

I have personally benefited from his insight and cherish the times that I have spent with him. Bob was instrumental in helping us to shape our Pathways to Success program. We wish him well in his future endeavors and look forward to more conversations with him as he continues to serve the Lord.

A Successful Evening of Art and Community

Thank you to everyone who attended our Mid-Century Art Show & Auction and helped make the evening a success. We are especially grateful to the Beckley Art Center for partnering with us on this event, as well as the volunteers and supporters whose time and efforts made it possible.

We also extend our sincere appreciation to everyone who participated in the silent auction and placed bids on the artwork. We hope you enjoy your beautiful new pieces.

Thanks to the generosity of our community, funds raised through the event will be shared equally between the Beckley Art Center and Hope in the Mountains to support our ongoing missions.

Volunteer Opportunity

Friends of Hope in the Mountains

We have added a weekly program in partnership with the Raleigh County Commission on Aging. Every Tuesday, from 11 to 1pm, we will be hosting seniors for an activity and a meal.

Would you be willing to partner with us in ministry? You could host an activity, pass out food, or help us clean up afterwards.

Free Summer Camps for Children

Hope in the Mountains is excited to offer two free summer camps for local children this June!

Summer Reading Camp (June 15-18 at Appletree Apartments) is open to children entering 1st through 3rd grade and helps strengthen reading skills through fun, engaging activities that can help prevent the summer learning slide.

DaySpring Bible Summer Camp (June 22-25 at The Hope Center) is open to children entering 1st through 5th grade and features Bible lessons, prayer, crafts, games, and activities in a caring, faith-filled environment. Breakfast, lunch, and snacks are provided daily.

Parents are encouraged to register their children soon and take advantage of these enriching summer opportunities for learning, growth, and connection.

To learn more or to register for either camp, visit www.hopeinthemountains.com/ministries or call us at (304) 683-1110.

Support Hope in the Mountains

Summer is in full swing at Hope in the Mountains, and our programs are making a difference every day.

From Pathways to Success and youth activities to support services for adults and seniors, we are helping individuals and families build skills, find encouragement, and create meaningful connections throughout the season.

None of this would be possible without the generosity of friends and supporters who believe in our mission. Your gift helps us continue providing opportunities, resources, and hope where it is needed most.

If you would like to partner with us, you may designate a specific program or allow your donation to support our greatest areas of need.
