Alive and Well

There is a difference between a book that merely records history and a book that still speaks. The Bible is the latter. Hebrews 4:12 tells us, "For the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing to the division of soul and of spirit, of joints and of marrow, and discerning the thoughts and intentions of the heart." Scripture is not a dusty relic to be admired from a distance, it is a living voice that continues to confront, comfort, and change the hearts of those who read it.

Human opinions shift with the culture. Philosophies rise and fall, but "the word of our God will stand forever" (Isaiah 40:8). In a world of constant change, God's Word gives us something fixed and trustworthy to stand on. It is consistent and steady but it's also active. In Isaiah 55:11, the Lord says His word "shall not return to me empty, but it shall accomplish that which I purpose and shall succeed in the thing for which I sent it." When the gospel is planted in a willing heart, it does not sit idle, it grows, convicts, and transforms.

Jesus said that man does not live by bread alone, "but by every word that comes from the mouth of God" (Matthew 4:4, ESV). Later, He told His disciples, "The words that I have spoken to you are spirit and life" (John 6:63). The Scriptures are not simply information about God, they are the means by which He nourishes, sustains, and gives eternal life to those who receive them (2 Timothy 3:15).

If God's Word is truly alive, then our relationship with it should be more than casual. James warns against being a hearer only, and urges us to be "doers of the word, and not hearers only" (James 1:22). The psalmist declared, "Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path" (Psalm 119:105). So we must not treat the Bible as background noise in our busy lives. Let us open it daily, expecting to meet the living God who still speaks through it. As we do, may it continue to pierce our hearts, correct our ways, and point us to the hope we have in Christ.
