

WAYNE & SUE ROYCE
ABWE — Cape Town, South Africa

Thank you for your continued prayers on behalf of the work of the Lord here in Cape Town, South Africa. The Lord is very gracious in all His ways and we appreciate your partnership with us.

We have been meeting together as combined churches for 3 months now, and the decision has been a very positive one. It has truly been a joy to work with the leadership. They are working very well together to lead the church now with purpose and direction. Our church attendance has been consistent and several of the people who voted against combining Mfuleni and Happy Valley Churches have now started to come again.

The Happy Valley Sunday School classes are picking up and beginning to grow a bit. Mfuleni Sunday School Classes and Stellenbosch are still growing and very well attended.

We had a wonderful afternoon for our Woman's Day Outreach. We shared the Samaritan woman from John 4 and had many visitors come and the opportunity to share a clear gospel presentation. Since then, we have had new Mamas coming to the church service on Sunday.

Another big praise is progress with our VISAS. We cannot say that we have our visas, BUT we do have an extension letter from the SA Government allowing us to travel and get back into the country.

On Sunday, October 4, we will be welcoming 12 new members at Simanyene. The churches have gone from being stagnant to having growth and life.

Thank you for your prayers and partnership in the gospel.
