The Book Club meets Thursday, September 24 to discuss "The Correspondent" by Virginia Evans. It is about a woman who tries to heal old wounds and make sense of the world the only way she knows how—through letters—in this charming, laugh out loud novel about a life fully lived.

We meet at 7:00 pm, normally on the 4th Thursday of the month in-person at BH – 2 (Benedict Hall, classroom 2) or online via Zoom.

In October, we'll meet Thursday, October 22nd, discussing The Heart of Winter by Jonathan Evison.

Contact Kathy P. for more info. Contact Donna S. for the Zoom link.

Special Offering Sunday Student Day

Find the envelopes in your bulletins
or visit our website (fairwoodumc.org/give)
to give towards this fund!

One of our six United Methodist denomination-wide special offerings will be collected Sunday, September 13th. United Methodist Student Day is not just about supporting education; it's also about equipping young leaders. Your offering funds scholarships for United Methodist students at college or graduate levels. These scholarships remove barriers so students can thrive in ministry, service, and vocation.

You can give with the special envelope in the Sunday bulletin on September 13 or give online at our website's GIVE page: <https://www.fairwoodumc.org/give>. Checks should include "UM Student Day" on the memo line.
