- I believe the most important word in the English language, apart from proper nouns, is _____ . You say, "But love has to be the most important word." I disagree. I see the relationship as like a railroad track and love is the train that goes across the track. Without a relationship, love cannot be expressed.
 - + John 3:16-17, "For God so loved the world that He gave His one and only Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish but have eternal life. ¹⁷For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through Him" (NIV).
 - + 2 Peter 3:9, "The Lord is not slow about His promise, as some count slowness, but is patient toward you, not willing for any to perish, but for all to come to repentance" (NASB).
 - + 1 Thessalonians 2:1-6, "You yourselves know, dear brothers and sisters, that our visit to you was not a failure. ²You know how badly we had been treated at Philippi just before we came to you and how much we suffered there. Yet our God gave us the courage to declare His Good News to you boldly, in spite of great opposition. ³So you can see we were not preaching with any deceit or impure motives or trickery. ⁴For we speak as messengers approved by God to be entrusted with the Good News. Our purpose is to please God, not people. He alone examines the motives of our hearts. ⁵Never once did we try to win you with flattery, as you well know. And God is our witness that we were not pretending to be your friends just to get your money! ⁶As for human praise, we have never sought it from you or anyone else" (NLT).

1. First, we have to be _____ to their needs (1 Thess. 2:7).

 - The word "gentle" is the Greek New Testament word [νήπιος; nēpios]. This words can be translated as "infant, child" as well as "gentle."
 - The word translated as "mother" is the Greek New Testament word [τροφός; trofos] it refers to a _____ mother.

 - + 1 Thessalonians 2:8, "Having so fond an affection for you, we were well-pleased to impart to you not only the gospel of God but also our own lives, because you had become very dear to us" (NASB).
 - The word translated as "affection" is the Greek New Testament word [ὑμειρομαί, homeiromai]. Since this is the only time this Greek word is used in the whole New Testament, we have to go to classical Greek writings to know its meaning. It means to long for someone passionately and earnestly. and, being linked to a mother's love, is intended here to express an affection so deep and compelling as to be unsurpassed.

3. Third, we have to live lives that are _____ and _____ (1 Thess. 2:9-10).

4. Fourth, we have to be enthusiastic in our _____ of them (1 Thess. 2:11).

Then the God of peace will be with you" (NLT).

Of course you would. ¹²And how much more valuable is a person than a sheep! Yes, the law permits a person to do good on the Sabbath.' ¹³Then He said to the man, 'Stretch out your hand.'
