Preparing our Hearts for Worship

“For I am not ashamed of the gospel, because it is the power of God that brings salvation to everyone who believes: first to the Jew, then to the Gentile. For in the gospel the righteousness of God is revealed—a righteousness that is by faith from first to last, just as it is written: “The righteous will live by faith.”

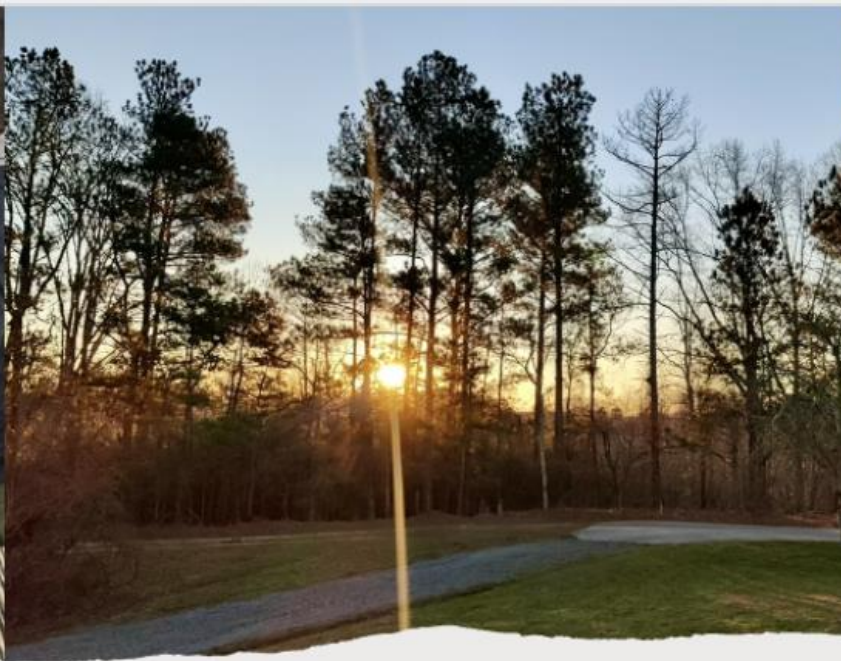

– Romans 1:16-17

Good News in Songs & Stories

Sunday, October 18 - 7:00pm

The background of the image is a photograph of the Colosseum in Rome, Italy. The structure is shown from a low angle, emphasizing its massive scale and the intricate details of its arches and columns. The sky is a deep, dark brown with some lighter, wispy clouds, creating a dramatic and somewhat somber atmosphere. The text is overlaid on the left side of the image, with the main title in large, white, serif capital letters and the subtitle in a smaller, white, italicized serif font.

5. 10:13 Life
6. 8:1 Freedom
7. 8:38-39 Safety

Romans 3:23

Sin

“All have sinned and fall short of the glory of God.”

Romans 6:23

Death

“For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.”

Romans 5:8

Loved

“But God demonstrates his own love for us in this:
While we were still sinners, Christ died for us.”

Romans 10:9

Faith

“If you declare with your mouth, ‘Jesus is Lord,’ and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved.”

Romans 10:13

Life

“Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.”

Romans 8:1

Freedom

“There is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus.”

Romans 8:38-39

Safety

“For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.”

Final Thoughts

The Good News of Romans is that sinners who cannot earn by works the righteousness that was lost, can be declared by faith to be perfectly righteous, in Jesus Christ.

Because of Jesus, there is now therefore no condemnation and no separation.

The Blessing

Romans 15:13

“May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.”
