Join Pastor Chantel Makarawa on a Southern CIVIL RIGHTS TOUR

March 13 - 19, 2027

As a pastor serving both McPherson First and Little River First United Methodist Churches, I believe our faith calls us to learn from the stories that have shaped our communities and our nation. As someone who grew up in Zimbabwe and now serves in Kansas, I have seen how history, faith, and courage can inspire people to work toward a more just and compassionate world.

I invite you to join me on this Southern Civil Rights Tour as we visit significant places, hear powerful stories, and reflect on the people whose faith and determination helped transform our nation. Together, we will explore not only history, but also what it means to live out our faith today.

Whether you are passionate about history, justice, or spiritual growth, I would be honored to share this meaningful journey with you.

Pastor Chantel Makarawa
