

Church of Sardis

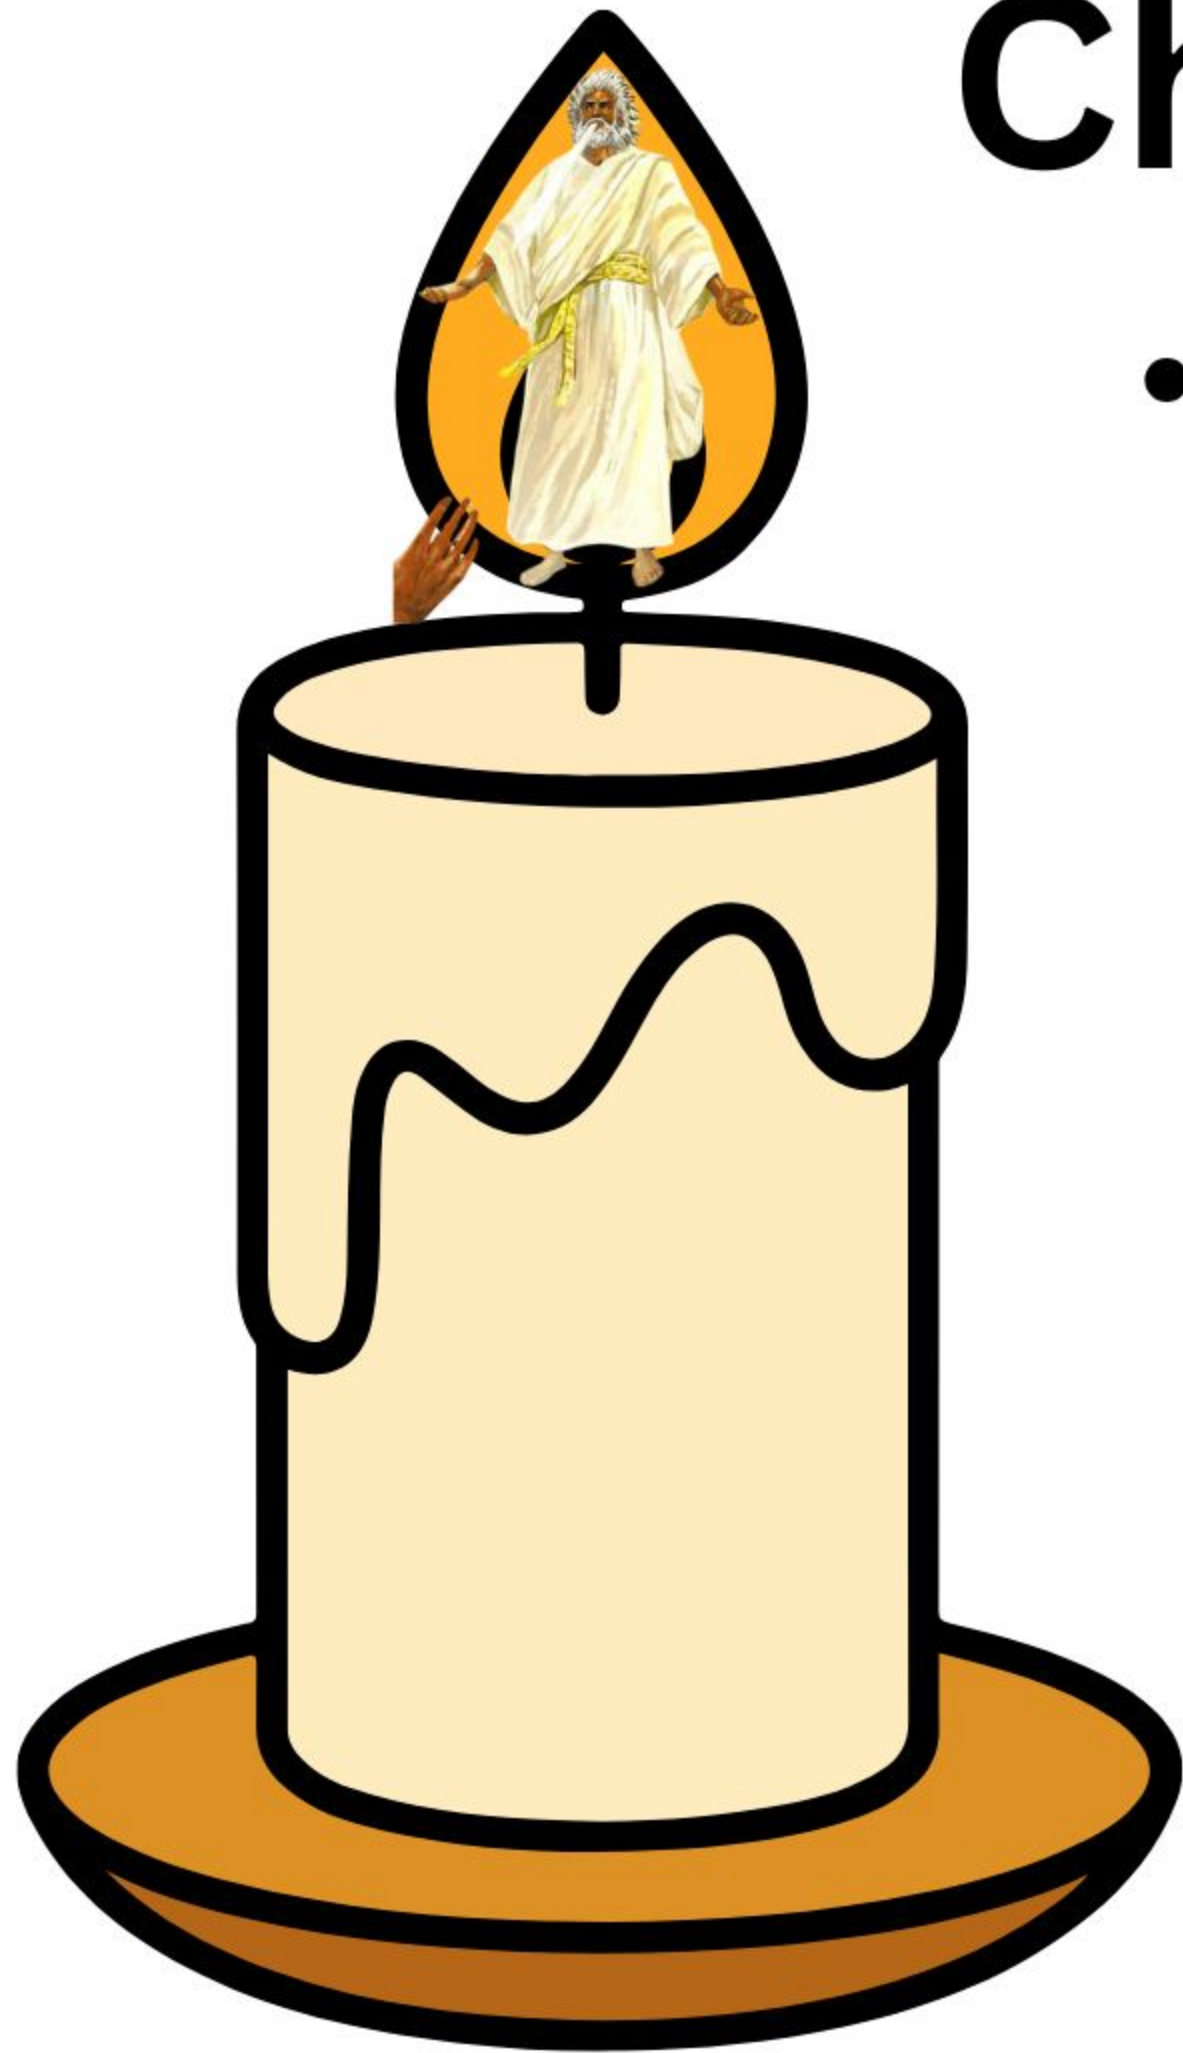

- Jesus describes himself as he that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars

Church of Sardis

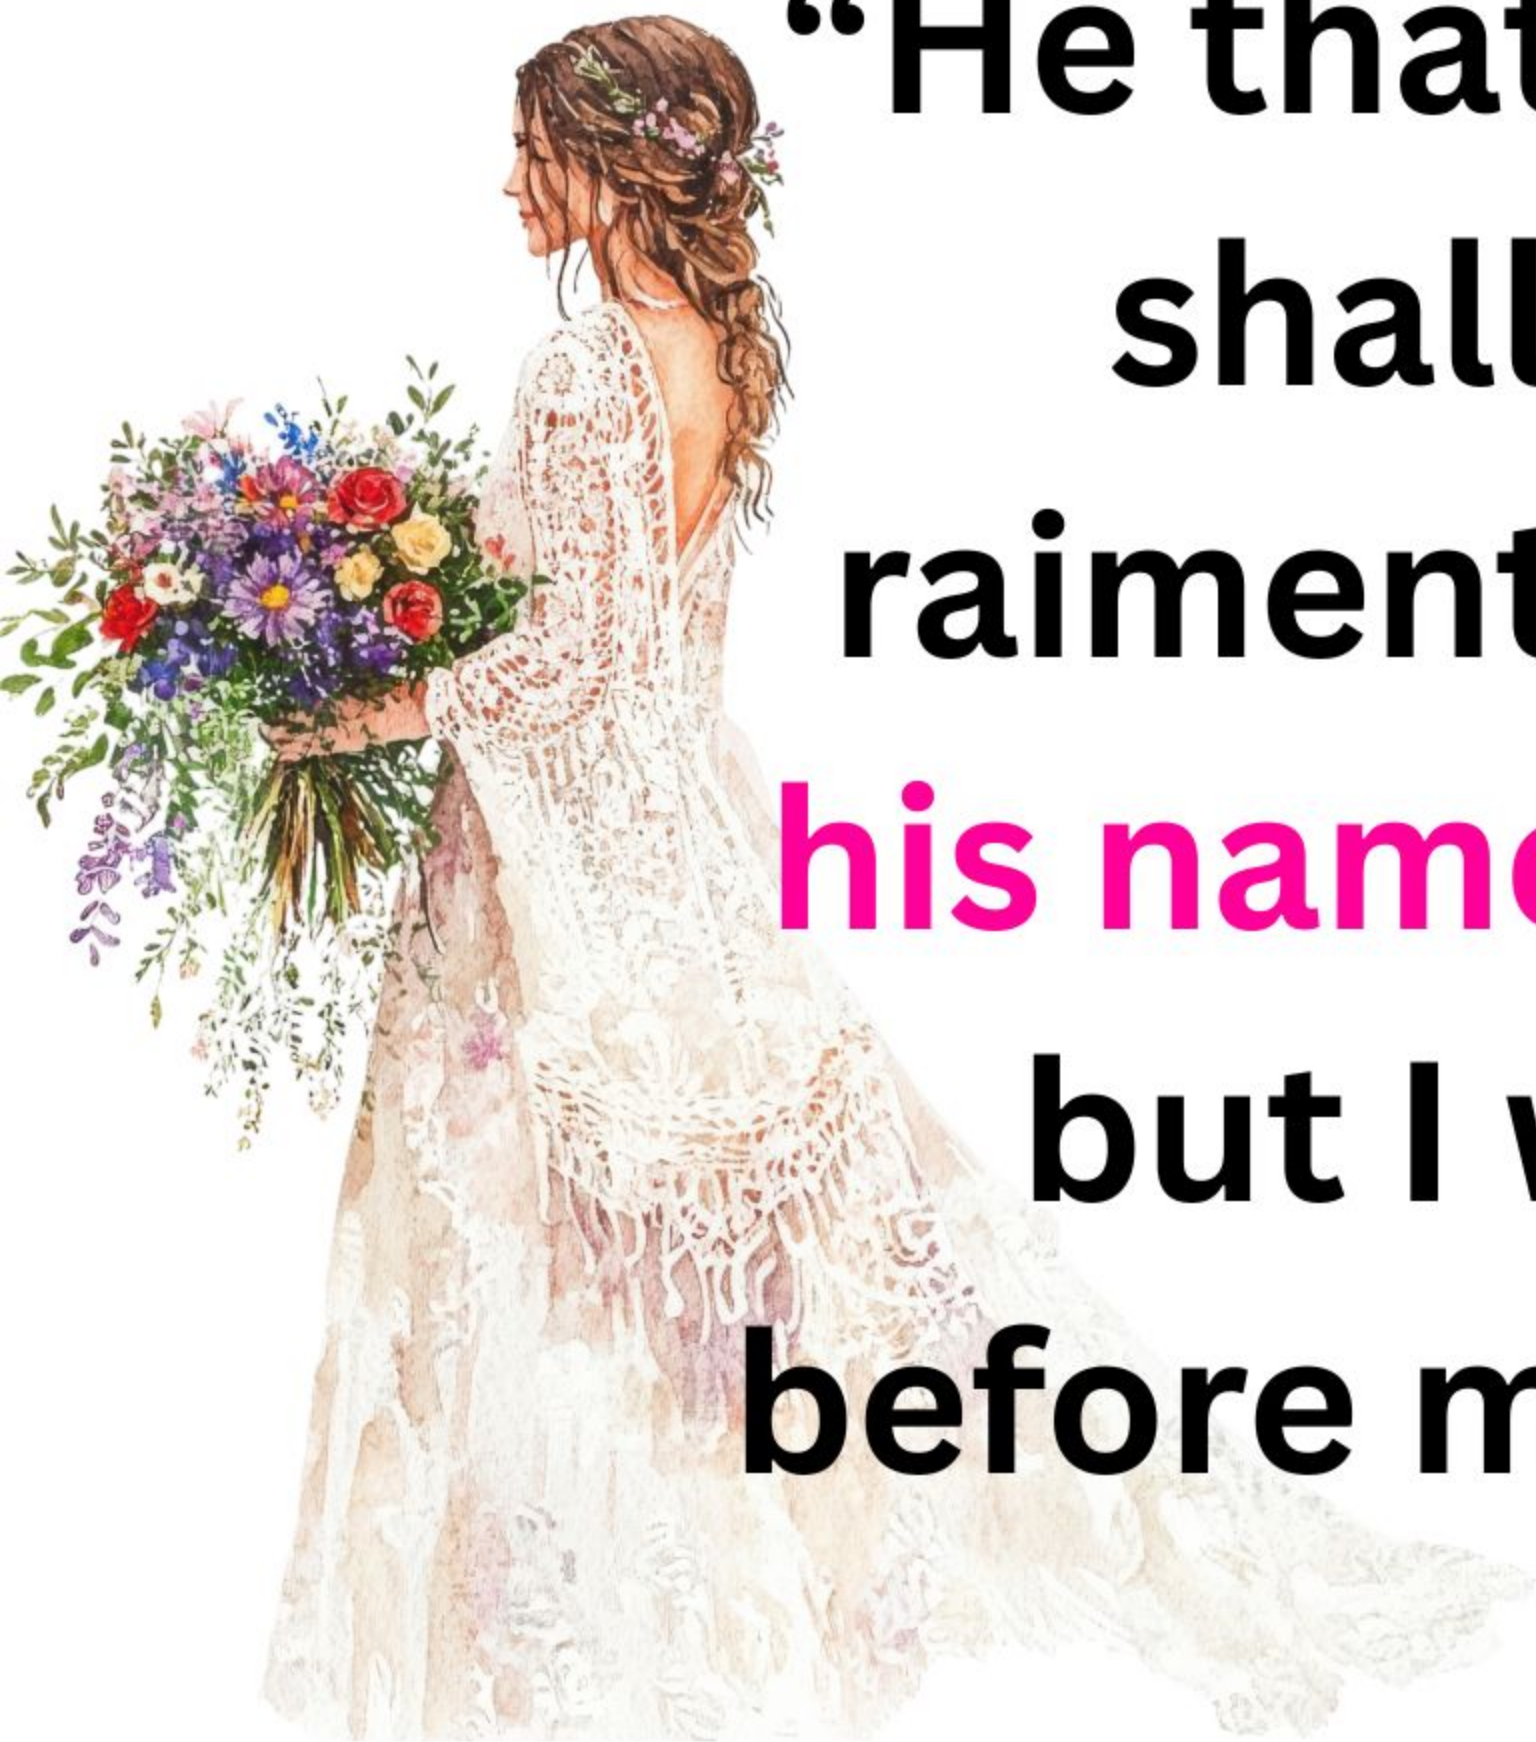

- Thou hast a few names even in Sardis which have not defiled their garments; and they shall walk with me in white: for they are worthy.

What Defiles our Garment?

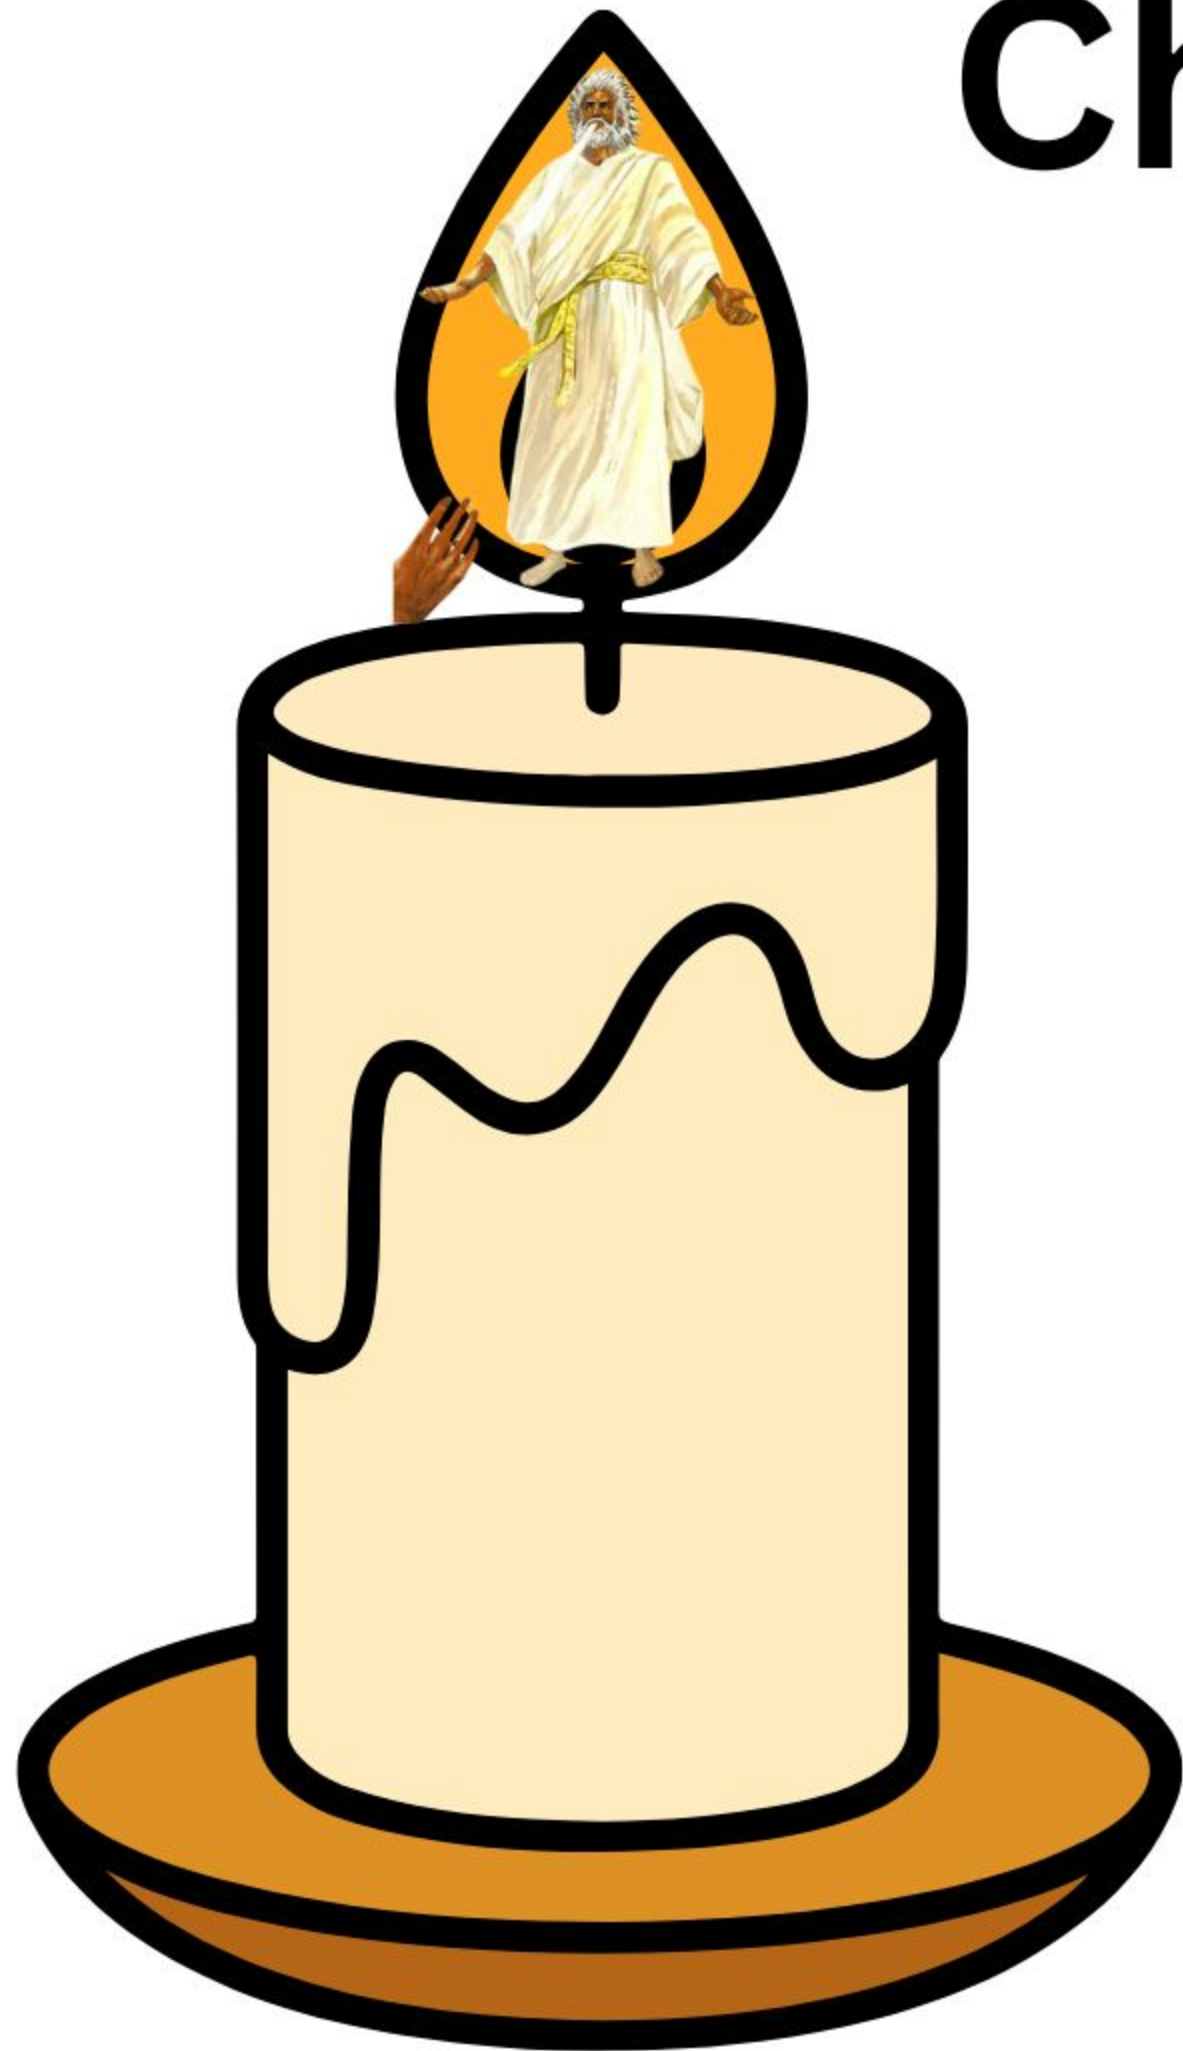

- Willing ignorance
- Lukewarm
- Breaking any of the commandments
- Staying in sin
- Gluttony - 7 deadly sins
- Partnering with the unholy (ecumenical)
- Pride
- Idols - cell phone, TV, self
- Mixture

“He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels.”

To a Christian, "defiling garments" in the Bible is a metaphor for spiritual corruption, representing how sin, disobedience, and immoral actions stain a person's standing before God. Based on passages like Revelation 3:4 and Jude 1:23, garments are defiled by the "flesh"—meaning sinful actions, idolatry, and moral compromises that violate a holy life

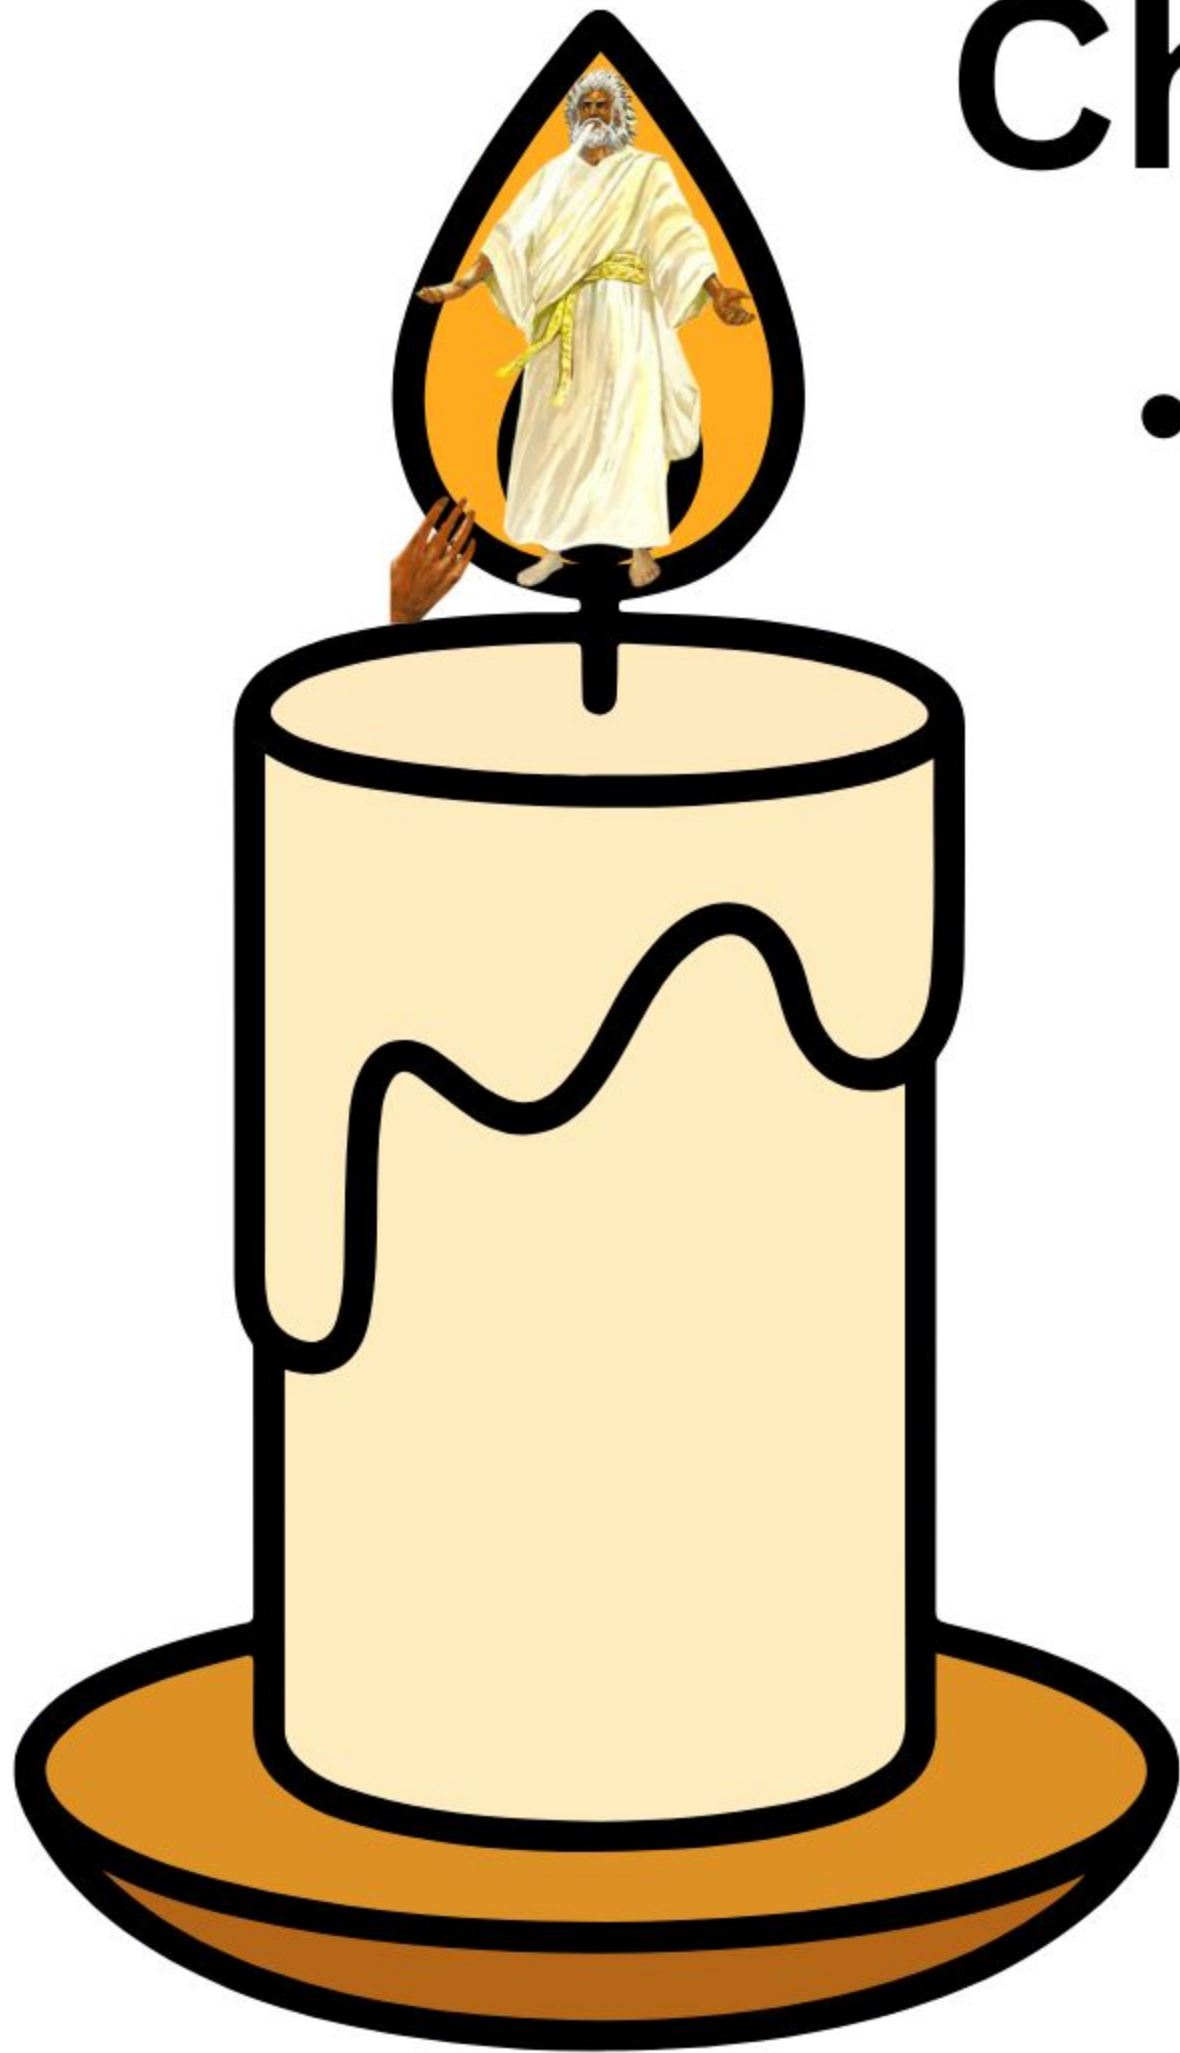

Church of Sardis

- “Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God.”

Church of Sardis

- Remember therefore how thou hast received and heard, and hold fast, and repent. If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee.

Church of Sardis

- I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, and art dead.

Alive but dead spiritually

Church of Philadelphia

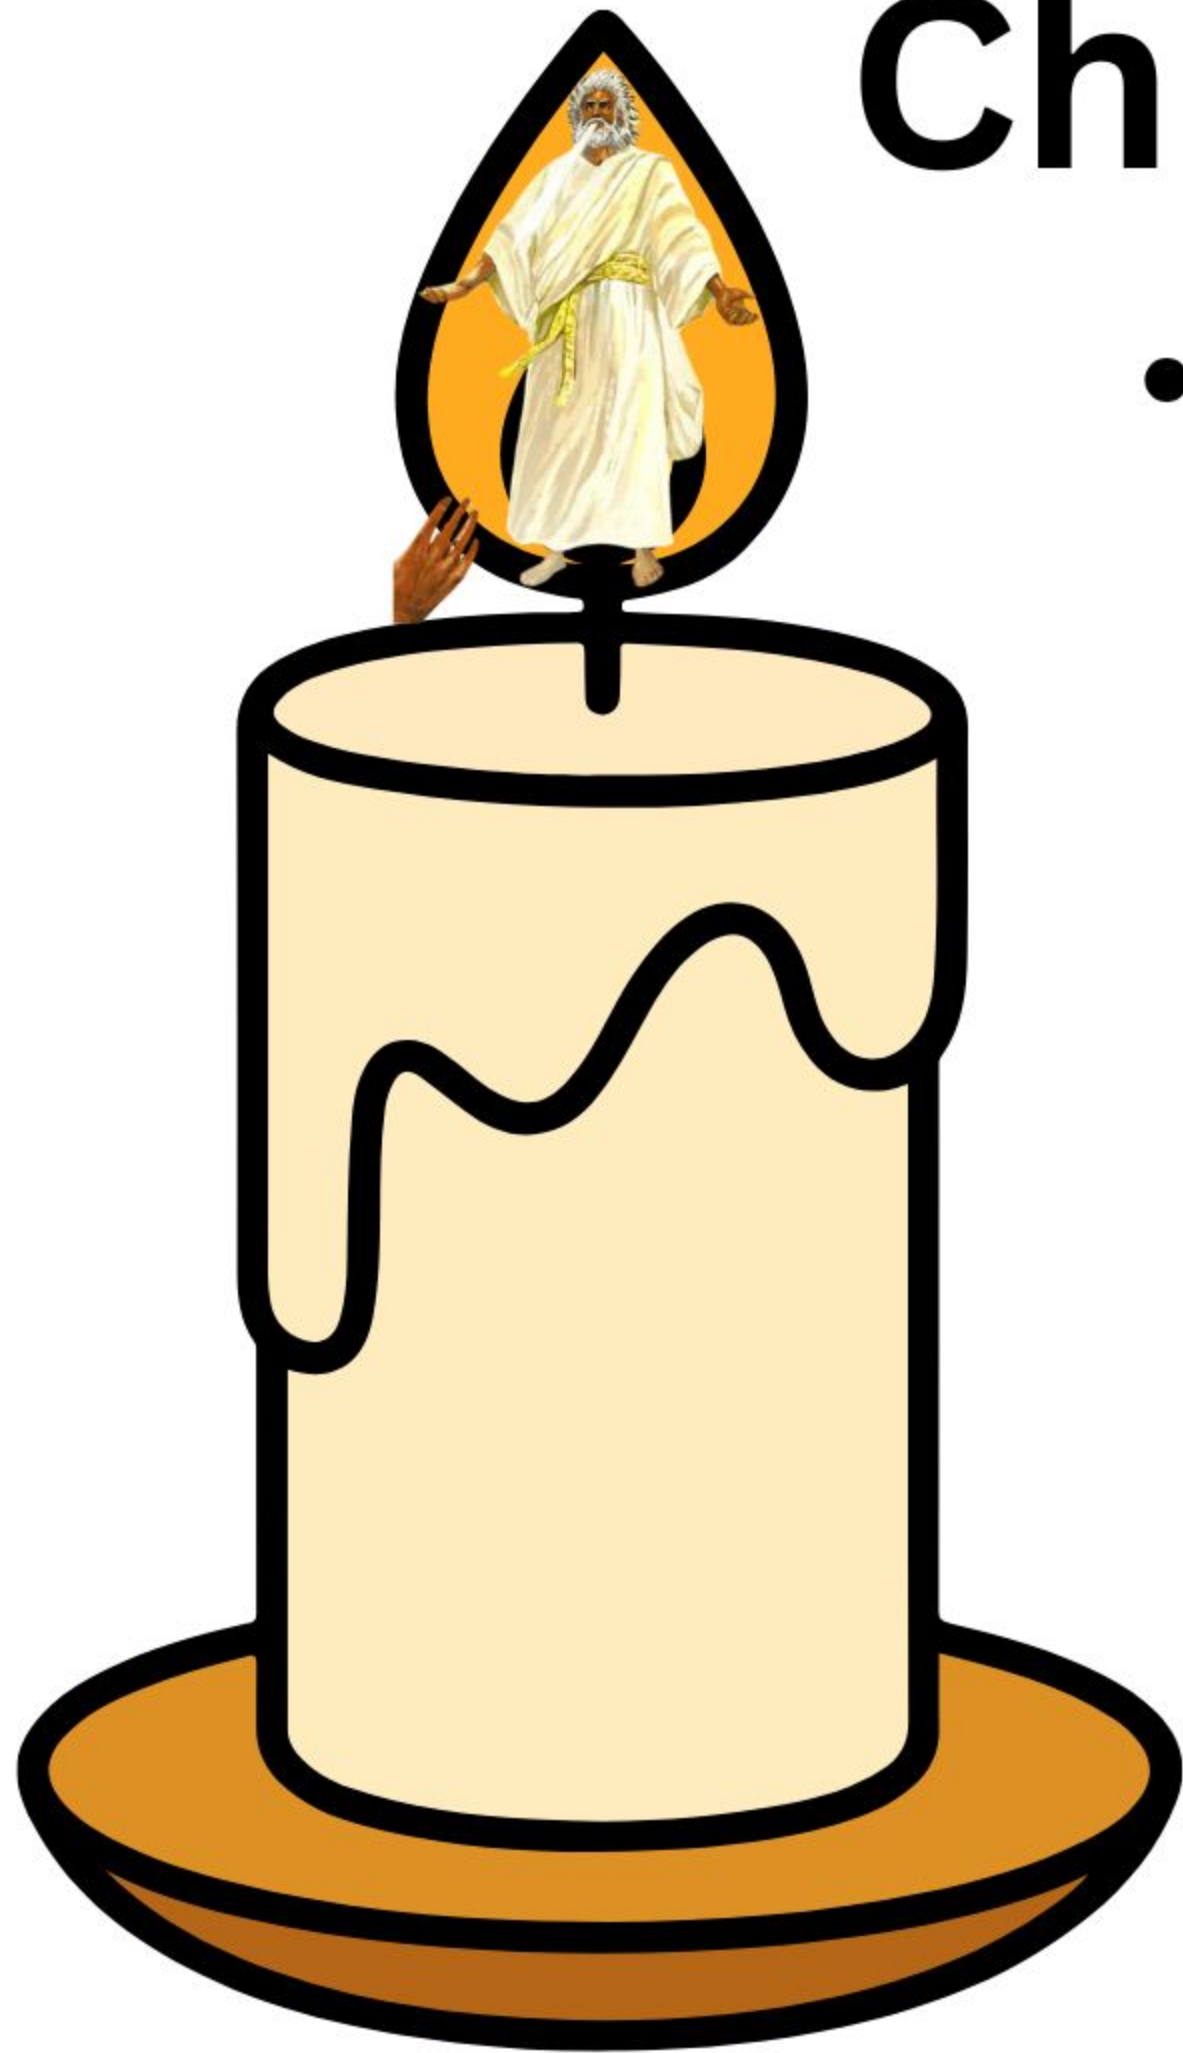

- “And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write; These things saith he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the key of David, he that openeth, and no man shutteth; and shutteth, and no man openeth;”

“Behold, I come quickly: hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown.”

Church of Philadelphia

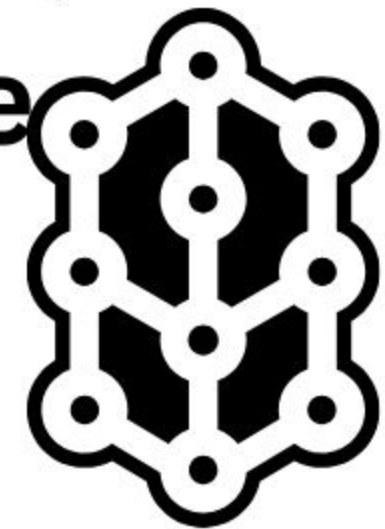

- “I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name.”

Church of Philadelphia

- “Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.”

Church of Philadelphia

- “Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth.”

In Revelation 3:10, "the word of my patience" (or "command to persevere") refers to Christ's teaching to endure suffering, trials, and persecution with faithful endurance rather than giving up. It signifies holding fast to the Gospel and maintaining trust in God while waiting for Jesus' return.
