

Avoiding Shipwreck (1 Timothy 1:18-20)

- Paul reminds Timothy of the prophecies once made about him (v. 18). How can remembering God's calling and past encouragements help us stay faithful during difficult seasons?
- What do you think Paul means by "fight the good fight"? What are some of the spiritual battles Christians commonly face today? How might you encourage a fellow Christian to fight the good fight?
- What warning signs might indicate that a believer is heading toward spiritual shipwreck?
- Why do many Christians avoid confronting fellow believers on their active sin? Based on this passage and Matthew 18:15-17, how can fellow Christians lovingly intervene?
- Looking at verses 18-20 as a whole, what practical habits help Christians remain faithful over the long term and finish their spiritual race well?

Missionary of the Week

Annika Notter: Naomi House & City Church, Winnipeg

Pray that a lovely Christian family, and others for whom she recently submitted refugee applications, will soon be able to come to Canada, and that the Lord will keep them safe as they wait. The “Explore the Refugee Highway” in August gave attendees a glimpse into the refugee journey, with 36 million refugees worldwide. Pray that refugees will find their true ‘Home’ in Christ. Believers with Muslim, Hindu, Buddhist, and Sikh backgrounds testified at the recent 'Winnipeg Challenge' event. Please pray for wisdom for Annika as she coordinates the youth programs at City Church and for God to draw the youth. Pray for her family as they grieve the loss of her grandpa, Ray Olson.
