Questions

JOHN 6:52-59

- Life through Jesus is true life
 - What do I currently look to for a sense of fulfillment, satisfaction, or purpose?
 - Am I trying to find life in things that can never truly satisfy?
 - What would change in my life if I genuinely believed that Jesus IS life?
- Life through Jesus is eternal life
 - When I think about eternal life, do I primarily think about life after death, or do I recognize that Jesus gives me life that begins now?
 - How does the promise of eternal life affect the way I face suffering, uncertainty, and death?
 - What earthly concerns tend to distract me from the eternal life I have through Christ?
- Life through Jesus is abiding life
 - Jesus speaks of eating His flesh and drinking His blood as a picture of receiving Him completely and continually. Am I merely acquainted with Jesus, or am I abiding in Him?
 - What does abiding in Jesus look like in my everyday life?
 - Where have I been trying to live the Christian life in my own strength rather than depending upon Christ?
 - What practices help me remain consciously connected to Jesus throughout the day?
- Life through Jesus comes by faith
 - Have I truly trusted Jesus as the source of my life, or am I depending on my own goodness, religious activity, or accomplishments?
 - What does it look like for me to trust Jesus more fully this week?
 - Is there an area of my life where I know what Jesus says, but I am struggling to actually trust Him?
- If Jesus IS life, what am I living for?
- If Jesus IS life, what am I depending on?
- If Jesus IS life, what do I need to surrender to Him?
- If Jesus IS life, how should that truth change the way I live this week?
- If someone looked at my life this week, would they see someone who is merely trying to live for Jesus—or someone who has discovered that Jesus Himself is life?
