1. Determine what your total ministry giving was for 2024, and divide by 52 to determine your weekly giving amount.
2. Find your annual household income in the left hand column. Move to the right on that row until you find your weekly giving amount.
3. From that location, move up to the title row and check the giving amount as a percentage of your income.
4. Finally, move to the right to determine how much you are willing to grow in your ministry giving for 2025.
