

“Two Witnesses” Lesson 6 Outline

Rev. 11:3-6

27 September 2026

“who are they?”

The things they do are very similar to judgments inflicted in the Old Testament by Moses and Elijah.

There has always been the belief among the Jews that Moses and Elijah would come back.

And they were at a preview of the second coming.
What do we call that? The _____.

1

They also were used by God to bring supernatural means of suffering on people for the purpose of stimulating repentance.

Both left this life in unusual ways.

There is a promise to the nation Israel of their ultimate _____.

Nothing is going to change God’s unbreakable promise.

The promise is as sure as the fixed order of the universe, and the immeasurable immensity of the heavens, and the secrets of the depths and foundations of the earth.

One day, Jerusalem, a redeemed nation, a redeemed city, will nurse the whole world, giving them, as it were, the milk of truth and righteousness in the day of her own restoration.

These two other preachers are used by God as the instruments of the _____ of the nation Israel.

In verses 5 and 6 we see their _____.

Many will seek to harm them.

God will mercifully send preachers to warn humanity.

They are invincible at this point and time.

They will have the power to stop the rain.

They will have the power to turn water into blood.

They will have the power to bring plagues.

They are absolutely unstoppable. They are like superheroes for God.

They've been immortal, death defying, and deadly, but only until their allotted time is done.

Other scriptures cited in order of citation: Zech. 3, 4; 2 Kings 1; 1 Kings 17; James 5:17; Ex. 7-10; Mal. 4:5; Deut. 18:15, 18; John 1:21; Matt. 17; Mark 9; Luke 9; 2 Kings 2; Matt. 11:13-14; Luke 1; Rom. 11:25-29; Lev. 26:44-45; Jer. 31:35-37; Isa. 62:6-7, 66:8-9, 10-13; Rev. 9:20-21; Luke 4:25, James 5:17; Ex. 7:20; Rev. 8:8, 10, 11:7